The Principles of Conduct for AMC Members is amended by adding the following paragraphs.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

Executive Session (closed session) is used to discuss legal issues and personnel matters, including those concerning volunteer personnel. All disciplinary actions are discussed in Executive Session in order to protect all parties from inaccurate information.

All matters discussed in Executive Session are confidential and may not be revealed to those not in attendance, including members of the AMC who were entitled to be there but were not. Matters discussed while a member absented himself for any reason may not be discussed with that member outside of Executive Session. (These latter restrictions are in order to restrict inaccurate information.)

Corporate law requires that all motions and their disposition be recorded. This is customarily done by reporting any motions passed and their movers and seconds into the open record when returning to open session. It is acceptable, however, to instead keep written minutes of the closed session, which then may be approved in open session but cannot be discussed or reviewed in open session.

The AMC may specifically approve exceptions to these restrictions as appropriate.

4. AWARDS:

1980-117

29-Nov-1980

To ratify the creation of the "Margot" Award, named for Margot SEITELMAN, its first recipient, as an award given only when the occasion arises in recognition of outstanding service to Mensa.

1985-076

02-Nov-1985

(Last amended 18-Sep-1999 by 1999-082)

[Secretary's note: The paragraphs in this ASIE are renumbered to flow properly after being amended.]

The following:

1. That all awards, be they local or national, be clearly distinguishable and, in order to avoid confusion between the two, that local awards should be identified as local awards, and national awards should be identified as American Mensa Awards.
2. That an American Mensa Awards Committee be created to confer national awards, consisting of five Distinguished Service Award or Margot Award recipients. Recipients currently holding National Office would be excluded from that committee.
3. [That] there should be additional awards created to recognize our many volunteers and their various types and levels of contribution. (Suggestion: in ascending order, the American Mensa Certificate of Appreciation, the American Mensa National Service Award (for faithful service), the American Mensa Distinguished Service Award (for outstanding service), and the Margot Award (for exceptional service).
4. [That] while the lesser of these awards should be liberally granted, the others should be granted only for outstanding or exceptional contributions to American Mensa, preferably over time, and never automatically.
5. [That] nominations should be for an award--with the evaluating body deciding which one--in order to avoid embarrassment to someone receiving an award lesser than the one for which the member was nominated.
6. [That] we need objective criteria and a system or guidelines for evaluating nominations and voting on these nominations--with a strong majority of the committee voting for a point system and one member suggesting a simple majority of "yes" votes, with the option to vote for a lesser award.
7. [That] the American Mensa Distinguished Service Awards, as well as the Margot Award, should be given out with appropriate ceremony at the Annual Gathering, with the lesser awards given out at an RG attended by the recipients or mailed.
8. [That] Life Membership Awards should be handled separately, that they should be given for either a great but very brief service, for exceptionally long and steady service, or for exceptional service by someone who has already received another award.

26-Mar-1988

(Last amended 18-Sep-1999 by 1999-082)

1988-032

26-Mar-1988

1988-033

26-Mar-1988

b) The candidates will be given a period of time during which they may speak extemporaneously, followed by a brief question and answer period.

b) All representatives shall be required to submit a ballot to be received not later than September 29 as stated below.

c) Ballots shall be submitted in triplicate to: the Nominating Committee chairman, the Nominating Committee assistant chairman, and the national ombudsman. If the ballots received by two of the three recipients match exactly, that representative's ballot will be counted in the way that is duplicated. If there is found to be no match, that representative's ballot shall be disregarded.

d) For vote counting purposes, Abstentions will be disregarded. For each office, the candidate with the largest ratio of Yes:No votes shall be nominated. Additionally, any other candidates with a Yes:No ratio equal to or greater than 1:1 shall also be nominated.

Candidates in uncontested races shall be voted upon just as if the race were contested, but shall be nominated regardless of the outcome.

e) No later than October 1 in the year preceding the election, the Nominating Committee chairman shall report the results of this voting to the AMC and to the Election Committee, including the number of Yes and No votes for each candidate. 4. All expenses must be submitted on the expense reimbursement form provided for that purpose, or computer equivalent, and all original receipts must be attached before reimbursements will be made. Copies of receipts are acceptable if the originals have been lost.

 To institute permanent three-year and five-year dues plans indexed to the annual dues rate for the year the plan is purchased.

The amount of the three-year dues shall be computed to be three times the current annual dues less 10%, then rounded to the nearest $5. (Example: 3 x $45 = $135, less $13.50 is $121.50, round to $120.)

Revenue will be recognized on a straight-line basis over the period of the plan taken. Funds received less the international dues component shall be placed in a separate, interest-bearing account and shall be made available for operations at the beginning of each fiscal year at the annual dues rate used to compute the current plan less the international dues component times the number of members in the plan.

Multi-year dues plans will apply only to full memberships and not to second-family memberships. These plans will

Any agreement regarding the commercial use of the Mensa name, the Mensa logo, or implied endorsement of the American Mensa organization requires Executive Committee (ExComm) approval, except as provided in paragraph (c) below. Such approval will follow a recommendation by the officers and/or committees charged in the following paragraphs.

- a) "Member Services Agreements" shall be defined as any commercial program, product, or service that is offered to Mensa members, usually at an additional cost paid directly to the vendor.

Member Services Agreements shall be reviewed and researched by the staff Membership Director and presented to the Membership Officer, the Development Officer, and the Chairman of the Name and Logo Committee for approval prior to being sent to the ExComm for final approval. Once approved, contracts must be approved by counsel prior to being signed by the Executive Director or the Chairman.

Current Member Services Agreements include: MBNA Credit card; Wohlers Insurance; the Mensa Boutique; etc.

- b) "Licensing Agreements" shall be defined as any permission to use the Mensa name and/or the Mensa logo, or any other implied endorsement of American Mensa, on a commercial product or venture that is sold, marketed, promoted, or distributed to the general public within the United States. Any agreement that includes public distribution or promotion outside the United States must be in conjunction with the Mensa International Licensing Committee, or with the national committees of those countries where distribution is initially expected to occur.

Licensing Agreements shall be reviewed by the Development Officer, the Chairman of the Name and Logo Committee, the Treasurer, and others as the Development Officer deems necessary. The staff Director of Marketing shall serve of counsel on Licensing Agreements. All Licensing Agreements must be approved by the Executive Committee, with the exception of individual participants in The Select Seal program; the Select Seal program is offered to Mind Games® winners by virtue of their having won the competition. All contracts must be approved by counsel prior to being signed by the Executive Director or the Chairman. By international definition, all Licensing Agreements should have financial benefit to the organization, but this may be determined to be in the form of increased membership or public relations exposure.

Current Licensing Agreements include: Sterling Books; LMCA ( Mind Games® ).

c) "Internal Use" shall be defined as use of the Mensa name and/or the Mensa logo by members, including personal use; use by Local Groups; and use by SIGs.

Internal Use shall be reviewed by the Name and Logo Committee, which includes the Intellectual Property Counsel. The Committee shall have the authority to grant or deny such use in accordance with the guidelines for logo use adopted by Mensa International and American Mensa. The Committee shall work with the Communications Officer to insure proper use in print and electronic media published by American Mensa, Local Groups, and SIGs. The chair may issue any letters regarding approval or disapproval of use, including Local Group commercial use, as long as profits or proceeds to the group are considered minimal. Any Internal Use that is likely to result in more than minimal profits or proceeds shall require approval of the Executive Committee. Any formal contract in this regard must be signed by the Executive Director or by the Chairman of American Mensa.

Current Internal Use issues include deciding proper use of the logo on T-shirts and other merchandise sold or distributed by Local Groups at RGs, and use of the name and/or the logo by members.

Any agreement regarding the commercial use of the Mensa name, the Mensa logo, or implied endorsement of the American Mensa organization requires Executive Committee (ExComm) approval, except as provided in paragraph (c) below. Such approval will follow a recommendation by the officers and/or committees charged in the following paragraphs.

- a) "Member Services Agreements" shall be defined as any commercial program, product, or service that is offered to Mensa members, usually at an additional cost paid directly to the vendor.

Member Services Agreements shall be reviewed and researched by the staff Membership Director and presented to the Membership Officer, the Development Officer, and the Chairman of the Name and Logo Committee for approval prior to being sent to the ExComm for final approval. Once approved, contracts must be approved by counsel prior to being signed by the Executive Director or the Chairman.

Current Member Services Agreements include: MBNA Credit card; Wohlers Insurance; the Mensa Boutique; etc.

- b) "Licensing Agreements" shall be defined as any permission to use the Mensa name and/or the Mensa logo, or any other implied endorsement of American Mensa, on a commercial product or venture that is sold, marketed, promoted, or distributed to the general public within the United States. Any agreement that includes public distribution or promotion outside the United States must be in conjunction with the Mensa International Licensing Committee, or with the national committees of those countries where distribution is initially expected to occur.

Licensing Agreements shall be reviewed by the Development Officer, the Chairman of the Name and Logo Committee, the Treasurer, and others as the Development Officer deems necessary. The staff Director of Marketing shall serve of counsel on Licensing Agreements. All Licensing Agreements must be approved by the Executive Committee, with the exception of individual participants in The Select Seal program; the Select Seal program is offered to Mind Games® winners by virtue of their having won the competition. Current Licensing Agreements include: Sterling Books; LMCA (Mind Games® ).

- c) "Internal Use" shall be defined as use of the Mensa name and/or the Mensa logo by members, including personal use; use by Local Groups; and use by SIGs.

The chair may issue any letters regarding approval or disapproval of use, including Local Group commercial use, as long as profits or proceeds to the group are considered minimal. Any Internal Use that is likely to result in more than minimal profits or proceeds shall require approval of the Executive Committee. Any formal contract in this regard must be signed by the Executive Director or by the Chairman of American Mensa.

Current Internal Use issues include deciding proper use of the logo on T-shirts and other merchandise sold or distributed by Local Groups at RGs, and use of the name and/or the logo by members.

Recording for commercial purposes of sessions that occur at Mensa events without providing prior notification to those being recorded is contrary to the policy of American Mensa, Ltd. Reproduction and/or publication of copyrighted material from sessions that occur at Mensa events without permission from the copyright holder is contrary to the policy of American Mensa. The word "sessions" in this action refers to sessions of any kind, including presentations, performances, discussions, and any other sort of session. The word "recordings" in this action refers to video, audio, and all other forms of recording. It is recommended that this policy be published in RVC, LocSec, and Gatherings Handbooks, and included in host contracts for AMC-awarded events such as AGs and Colloquia.

18. PROJECTS:

1989-008

01-Apr-1989

That support be provided by American Mensa for the efforts of its Local Groups to encourage reading, to foster love of books, and to popularize libraries.

1989-009

01-Apr-1989

That American Mensa explore the PR possibilities of cooperating with the American Library Association in programs that support reading, books, and libraries.

25-Mar-1990

That the AMC authorize the Mensa Literacy Project Committee to award grants (up to a total amount of $5,000) to Local Groups to assist them in their projects in support of reading and literacy.

04-Jul-1992

That the AMC strongly encourages local chapters to develop more external programs to provide greater visibility, support and awareness of local Mensa chapters within their local communities. To support this, designated persons will be appointed by the AMC to develop a reference guide of successful local projects, including their organization, promotion, and funding.

04-Jul-1992

To change the name of the Cause-Related Programming Committee to the Mensa Literacy Project Committee. The Committee's primary charge shall be to administer and further the development of the Mensa Literacy Project, to award the Literacy Project Grants, and to provide informational and other resources to Local Groups for use in their projects in support of reading, books, and libraries.

08-Jul-2000

That National Testing Day be an annual program. The Development Officer, in consultation with the Chair of American Mensa, and the Mensa Executive Director, shall set the date of this program in a timely manner.

2003-010

29-Mar-2003

AML LITERACY GRANTS PROGRAM GUIDELINES

PURPOSE: To support, in a modest way, the involvement of Mensa members in existing literacy programs, in keeping with a constitutional purpose of Mensa "to identify and foster human intelligence for the benefit of humanity."

APPLICATION PROCESS

Applicants may be AML members or AML Local Groups. A written request should be sent directly to the AMC Literacy Coordinator. The request should be brief, but provide the following information:

- The precise name of the organization and program to which funds would be given.
- The literacy-related purpose to which the funds would be put.
- The street address, telephone number, email address and contact person at the recipient organization. This will be used to mail the check and in the event that AML wishes to make direct contact with the recipient organization.
- How the AML member or Local Group is involved with the literacy program.

- A statement that the recipient program either holds a 501(c)(3) tax determination from the Internal Revenue Service, or is a function of government.
- What positive publicity might accrue to AML from (or be arranged through) this grant.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Grants will generally be of $1,000 or less. Larger grants may be considered for more ambitious projects pending available funds and likely demand for monies during the course of a given year.

While new requests will generally have preference in the approval process, organizations may occasionally be funded for a second or subsequent year. Any request for renewal must be submitted anew. Under no circumstances should a literacy program regard these literacy grants as a source of annual operational funding ad infinitum.

Literacy Grants do not support the start-up of literacy programs.

Over the course of a year, AML seeks to fund geographically diverse literacy programs. Presence of an existing grant in a given state or region, however, should not discourage other applications from that state or region.

REPORT: Within six months of the date on the AML check, the recipient organization must file with AML a brief report stating how funds were used and the benefits from the grant to the organization's literacy program.

SIGHT hosts and guests will be recognized as long as they are not charged with any violations or abuses of the SIGHT program. "Violations or abuses of the SIGHT program" are defined as any activity or series of activities that undermine or compromise the credibility and spirit of hospitality inherent in a service of information, guidance, or hospitality to travelers. The Ombudsman and the AMC are to be notified of the removal of any SIGHT participation by the National SIGHT Coordinator.

22. SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS (SIGs):

1978-086 (0000-145) 04-Nov-1978
(Last amended 18-Sep-2004 by 2004-112)
Resolved that AMC recognize the concept of national vs. local SIGs in that national SIGs operate through correspondence and newsletters, both paper and electronic, their members being dispersed over all areas of American Mensa. Membership is limited to members of American Mensa. At the sole discretion of the SIG Coordinator, members of other national Mensas, Direct International Members, and non-Mensans may participate in the activities of the SIG as guests. SIGs of American Mensa are under the jurisdiction of the AMC, delegated to the SIGs Officer. Local SIGs operate under the jurisdiction of the Local Group where they operate.

1985-030 23-Jun-1985
That the AMC establish the position of SIGs Officer as a special appointee to serve as the AMC's representative in matters relating to Special Interest Groups and to act on AMC's behalf in extending and withdrawing American Mensa recognition of national Special Interest Groups.

(Last amended on 18-Sep-2004 by 2004-113)
That the SIG policy adopted by the AMC in August 1984 be clarified to note that a SIG newsletter is not prohibited from publishing opinions relating to Mensa politics provided that there is appropriate identification that the opinion is that of the author and the author alone, and not that of the SIG or American Mensa.

That the SIGS Officer has the authority to establish the specific, reasonable conditions under which a SIG or M-to-M service may be considered "inactive" for the purpose of retaining AMC recognition.

1991-007 06-Apr-1991
That in view of the significant contribution SIGs have made to the development of Mensa, it is the sense of the AMC that the SIGs Officer be empowered to make SIGnet subscriptions available to any Mensa member upon request at a rate that recovers printing and mailing costs.

1992-048 12-Sep-1992
That proposers of new or existing SIGs shall be required to submit their newsletters or other materials to the SIGs Officer. If the SIGs Officer has questions about the legality of any SIG literature, those questions and the associated SIG literature will be reviewed by the legal counsel.

1995-117 16-Dec-1995
To approve in principle, pending review by legal counsel, the revised Handbook for Special Interest Groups, August 1995 revision, previously distributed to the AMC.

(Last amended 20-Mar-2004 by 2004-005)
Special Interest Groups (SIGs) are considered to be Member-to-Member Services. SIGs are within the jurisdiction of the SIGs Officer, who is authorized to act on AML's behalf in recognizing, publicizing, and withdrawing recognition from SIGs, subject to appeal to the AMC. SIGs will be recognized provided that they conform to the applicable sections of the Actions Still in Effect of American Mensa that limit the recognition of Special Interest Groups.

2004-022 20-Mar-2004
That the AMC vote to accept the recommendation of the SIGs Committee to make the Special Interest Groups (SIGs) of American Mensa a membership benefit.

2004-089 03-Jul-2004
To reimburse each SIG for mailing one copy of each issue of its paper newsletter to the National Office. The rate per issue is the same as that of the corporate subscription program.

2004-092 03-Jul-2004
To be a member of an AML SIG requires current membership in Mensa. Guests sponsored by a SIG member are permitted at the discretion of the SIG Coordinator.

APPENDIX 1: Guidelines for AML Committees: Their Structure, Establishment, Reporting, and Review

(see 2002-154, and 2003-011)

Amended on December 13, 2002

This guideline document is intended for the use of the AMC in establishing new committees to accomplish the work of American Mensa Ltd. It is not intended to circumscribe the actions of the AMC or any AML committee, but rather to ensure that each committee is appropriately established with AML authorization, that a record is maintained of what various committees were established to do, and that committees that have completed their useful life are not carried on the record ad infinitum.

I. TYPES OF AML COMMITTEES

The following terms have the following definitions:

- a) An "ad hoc committee" is defined as a committee whose period of existence terminates with the AMC that appointed the committee, unless the AMC specifies a shorter period for the committee, or unless the next AMC specifically re-authorizes the committee.
- b) A "standing committee" is defined as a committee whose period of existence extends beyond the AMC that appointed the committee. Each incoming AMC appoints committee members, but the committee itself continues from AMC to AMC, pending a review by the incoming AMC that the committee is still needed.

Section VII.(3).(a) of the bylaws of American Mensa authorizes the formation of "standing committees" that have at least three AMC members and that may act for the AMC in certain situations. The standing committees referred to in section VII.(3).(a) are a subset of all standing committees, in that they are also action committees.

- c) A "recurring committee" is defined as a committee that is not always in existence, but whose existence occurs at set intervals defined in either the bylaws or the AMC action that established the committee. Examples include the Election and Nominating Committees.
- d) An "action committee" is defined as a committee that is empowered to act for the AMC between AMC meetings in one or more specified areas. The areas must be specified in the committee's written charge. Each action committee must have at least three members who are AMC members. When the committee acts for the AMC, only AMC members on the committee may vote. When the action committee is not acting for the AMC, non-AMC members on the committee may also vote. Action committees may be ad hoc, standing, or recurring, though they will usually be standing committees.
- e) An "advisory committee" is defined as a committee that is not empowered to act for the AMC between AMC meetings, but rather advises the AMC regarding possible courses of action. Advisory committees may be ad hoc, standing, or recurring.

- f) An "empowered committee" is defined as a committee that need not have AMC members, but nonetheless is empowered to act by either the bylaws or the AMC action that established the committee. Committee chairs and members are in most cases appointed by the AMC, but, once appointed, the committee acts independently of the AMC. Examples include the Awards, Election, Hearings, and Nominating Committees. Empowered committees may be ad hoc, standing, or recurring, though they will usually be standing or recurring.
- g) A "program committee" is defined as a committee that is authorized to run a specified program area for the AMC. The program area must be specified in the committee's written charge. No requirement exists for AMC members on the program committee. Program committees may be ad hoc, standing, or recurring committees, though they will usually be standing committees.

Each committee can be classified in one cell or another of a 4x3 matrix, with "standing," "ad hoc," and "recurring" on one axis of the matrix and "action," "advisory," "empowered," and "program" on the other axis of the matrix, as follows:

|           | Ad Hoc | Standing | Recurring |
|-----------|--------|----------|-----------|
| Action    |        |          |           |
| Advisory  |        |          |           |
| Empowered |        |          |           |
| Program   |        |          |           |

II. ESTABLISHMENT AND DISSOLUTION OF COMMITTEES

Every Committee of AML should have a separate ASIE specifically worded for its establishment, which contains specific items of information. This will enable the Secretary and other AMC members to more easily keep track of committee appointments, activities, reporting dates, and reviews. Because each new committee needs an ASIE to be established, any committee that is to be dissolved should also have a housekeeping action to dissolve it.

- A. Name of the Committee -- as clearly descriptive as possible consistent with the goal of brevity. If possible the name of the new committee should not be too close to the name of any existing committee to reduce general confusion as to which groups are working on what topics.
- B. Type of Committee -- by this is meant, an action committee, a standing committee, or an ad hoc committee/task force so that the intent of the establishing AMC is clear to everyone, but especially to future AMCs.
- C. Chair of the Committee. Who shall chair the committee, and how they are appointed.
- D. Membership of the Committee -- how many members, who selects them, how long should they serve, any special requirements the members should need, etc. Stakeholders who should always be part of the committee should be named by title.
- E. Charge to the Committee -- a brief description of what the committee is expected to do. If each committee, especially the action and standing ones, has a clearly worded charge, then not only will the committee members have an idea of what the AMC expects of them, but the AMC will have a clear idea of what to expect from the committee. In addition, with a clear charge for each committee, the AMC may find that it can assign projects to existing committees rather than forming many committees with overlapping functions.

F. Reporting Date for the Ad Hoc Committee/Task

Force: a specific date or meeting, when the committee is expected to report back to the AMC with an interim and final report/recommendation. The AMC can certainly grant extensions as needed and requested.

G. A statement of the type and frequency of reporting expected for all other types of committees.

H. Review or Dissolution Date for the Committee -- this will keep the committee structure continually updated. For ad hoc committees the date of the final report is the automatic dissolution date. For action and standing committees, a periodic review of the need for their continuation can be beneficial to both the committee and the AMC. If the review date is part of the original enabling motion, then it is a matter of record that is easily retrievable and trackable.

III. SAMPLE MOTION TO ESTABLISH A NEW COMMITTEE

A. This is offered so that AMC members wishing to propose a new committee will have an easily accessible format to follow either before or during AMC meetings so that none of the important elements will be forgotten.

Moved __ (name) ____, seconded __ (name) ____, that the AMC establish the __ (name) __ Committee as a __ (type) __ committee of the AMC. The AMC Chairman shall appoint the Committee's chairman, with the advice and consent of the AMC, no later than (date or meeting). The other members shall be appointed by the committee chair after consultation with the AMC Chair and Liaison. The (name) Officer shall be a member of this committee.

The charge of the committee shall be to __ (list tasks to be performed) ____. The committee is expected to provide an interim report to the AMC at __ (date) __ and to provide a final report no later than (date) .

B. The charge or list of tasks assigned to the committee is vitally important. If the motion is to be made "on the fly" rather than before the preparation of the agenda for the AMC meeting, the AMC may wish to assign two or three members to work on the specific charge and bring it back to the whole group before final approval. This is especially true for action and standing committees, although it is presumed that these will always be thought out more carefully than is possible during a single AMC meeting.

C. Both the AMC and committee chairs should be reminded when a new committee is in the construction phases, of several points concerning the size and composition of committees.

1. Only on action committees are voting privileges limited to AMC members, and even on action committees non-AMC members may serve a consultative role, but without vote.
2. Committees may be comprised of any mix of AMC and non-AMC members, including having no AMC members on the committee and only one AMC member as ex officio liaison. In fact, the use of non-AMC members should be encouraged for these reasons:

- a. It spreads the work around so that AMC members do not get so over-committed that they burn out.
  - b. It provides excellent opportunities for membership input into the operations of the organization.
  - c. Committee service is an excellent training ground for future AMC members.
3. Committees should be kept to the fewest number of members possible to do the assigned tasks. Committees of more than five can become very unwieldy unless there is an enormous amount of work to do and an excellent organizer/delegator in the chair's position. Larger committees often are divided into sub-groups to work on specified parts of the charge.

IV. COMMITTEE REPORTS

A. Committees are expected to report to the AMC at each meeting, even if no action has occurred since the last meeting. It is particularly important that any committees that are submitting reports for AMC consideration adhere to the deadlines for submission of reports and motions. In the case of action committees, the report should include, under a readily-identifiable heading, each action taken by the committee on behalf of the AMC in the period covered by the report.

B. It should be unnecessary for the AMC Secretary to include an entire committee's report as an integral part of an agenda item. Only the actual motions to be made to the AMC should appear in the agenda. Committee reports are considered as part of the written record of the meeting and are filed with the minutes.

C. Committees should be urged to produce reports that clearly delineate actions that they wish to recommend that the AMC approve in formal actions as opposed to narrative reports that have no clear actions to help progress the efforts and programs of the organization.

V. PERIODIC REVIEW

The charges of committees, even of those specified in the Bylaws, should be reviewed periodically for any necessary changes and updating. The incoming Chairman of a new AMC always reviews the need for each committee before nominating individuals to that committee.

A brief survey of Committee members at the end of each AMC is recommended to assist the incoming chair to evaluate potential changes in committee structure or personnel.

A more thorough review of each committee and its charge is recommended periodically, when the Chair is more experienced and there is more time.

Present chairs and members of committees being reviewed should be interviewed to solicit possible changes needed to improve the working of the committee. Input from liaisons (AMC and staff) should also be included.

If committee structure or charge is changed, care should be exercised to make corresponding changes to other committees, who might gain or lose parts of their charge.

VI. COMMITTEE/APPOINTEE LIAISONS

1. Appointment of Liaisons

A. Members of the AMC shall serve as the liaisons to the AMC for all committees and non AMC appointees. Assignments of liaisons shall be done by the Chairman of the AMC.

B. A member of the Mensa National Office staff shall be assigned as staff liaison to each committee and appointee (AMC and non) by the Executive Director, in consultation with the chair of the AMC.

2. Duties of AMC committee liaisons

A. Report to the committee chair any AMC discussions regarding the committee's work assignments or other committee activity which may have an impact of the duties of this committee.

B. Keep abreast of the committee's activities through participation in committee work, communication with the committee chair and/or reading minutes of the committee's meetings.

1) The AMC liaison should be invited to attend committee meetings, be copied on committee related correspondence (email and paper) and participate in committee discussions.

C. Present committee reports and motions to the AMC.

D. Remind the committee chair of deadline dates for standing committee work, budget requests, AMC agenda items, reports, and similar items. If a non-AMC Committee Chair does not submit timely items, the AMC liaison should submit the needed document for the committee. Review committee reports to ensure they are complete and accurate and AMC is kept informed of key committee actions.

E. Ensure Committee members understand AMC reimbursement and budget request procedures. Approve budget and large reimbursement requests from the Committee, if the Chair is not an AMC member.

F. Ensure the committee is aware of AML structure and any AML policy which impacts the Committee's work.

G. Encourage the committee to work cooperatively and consult with others when tasks overlap.

H. Solicit diversity among committee members. Assist the Chairman to find new members if areas of the country, for example, are not represented. Assist the Committee and AMC Chairman to identify committee members who may be good candidates for other positions.

3. Duties of Staff liaisons

A) The staff liaison should be invited to attend committee meetings, be copied on committee related correspondence (email and paper) and participate in committee discussions.

B) The staff liaison should be consulted regarding logistics and implementation of projects or recommendations

C) The staff liaison will remind the committee chair of deadline dates for AMC agenda items, reports, and similar items.

D) Depending on the committee charge, the staff liaison may use the committee as an advisory body for day to day matters. In most cases, these committees are also under the auspices of one of the four national appointees that serve on the AMC

VII. BUDGET

The annual budget of American Mensa is established each year by the Finance committee and presented to the AMC for approval. Each committee should be aware of the budget setting cycle and procedure and estimate their needs (if any) for the coming fiscal year.

Approval to use those funds is controlled by the budgetary officers in accordance with financial policies (see ASIE 1983-075).

Requests for funding should be submitted through committee liaisons and/or budgetary officers.

APPENDIX 2: Guidelines for Mensa Leadership Development Workshops:
(see 1997-079 and 1998-029)

Amended on March 28, 1998

PURPOSE

The purpose of Mensa Leadership Development is twofold:

- To provide a standardized course to train a pool of Mensans from which Local Group officers can be recruited and:
- To improve the skills and knowledge of Local Group officers allowing them to better serve the group.

ATTENDANCE

To find qualified Local Group leadership candidates, LDW needs to attract a diversified pool of participants.

Current officers and members interested in becoming involved in Local Group leadership and administration should be encouraged to attend.

Spouses and significant others may attend if space is available.

The optimum attendance at each LDW is between 25 and 45, not including the workshop leaders.

A member may attend an LDW outside his/her own region if it is more convenient, and space permits. However, members in the sponsoring RVC's region shall have priority if space is limited.

FREQUENCY

There should be approximately one LDW in each region each year. The location should be moved around the region to make the workshops eventually accessible to all Local Groups.

LOCATION

Leadership Development Workshops (LDWs) should be held all over the country in locations within easy reach of the members. An RVC planning a LDW should consider accessibility, Local Group capabilities to host the LDW, and how the money available can be used to deliver the most help to the most people.

DURATION AND VENUE

A LDW may be a weekend event, similar in duration to an RG, or it may be a one-day event. The primary requirement is that it may not be concurrent with any other activity such as a gathering.

A certain amount of time will be set aside at each LDW for local and regional concerns.

Time will also be set aside for networking and private discussion with peers.

The venue may be any free or reasonably priced location the RVC can secure that is suitable for the workshop. It must be safe and reasonably convenient and a location acceptable for Mensa insurance purposes.

CURRICULUM

Each workshop presented at an LDW will be based on the approved learning objectives for that topic. The person leading the workshop must be willing to emphasize these learning objectives. If time allows, he or she may enhance the presentation with additional materials of his/her own.

The RVC sponsor of the LDW will determine the curriculum for the LDW based on the needs of the Local Groups most likely to be represented at the LDW and the availability of suitable workshop leaders.

An RVC may use a local resource person who presents a specialized topic, if the workshop leader is known to be an expert on the topic, and the topic is one that will enhance the abilities of Local Group leaders. The workshop leader must be willing to supply a synopsis of the workshop to the LDW Coordinator.

CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT

The Leadership Development Committee shall determine the topics that should be presented at LDWs, keeping in mind that there are various levels of needs.

The Leadership Development Committee shall appoint knowledgeable and qualified people to develop the learning objectives, including core competencies and best practices for each topic. The Leadership Development Committee may review each presentation to ensure that the material in it is consistent with current ASIEs and proven and accepted practices in American Mensa. If a subject matter expert (SME) is not familiar with standard curriculum development practices, the committee will identify a qualified person to assist the SME.

WORKSHOP LEADERS

Each workshop leader should be experienced as a presenter in the subject, or be an experienced teacher or presenter who is able to effectively and enthusiastically lead a workshop based on the supplied learning objectives.

Local and regional workshop leaders should be used as much as possible if the RVC is confident of the leader's ability to present an effective workshop on the topic.

Workshop leaders will not receive payment but may have travel and expenses reimbursed as budgeted by the RVC and approved by the LDW coordinator and the Leadership Development committee.

The RVC may bring in workshop leaders from outside the region if no qualified regional resource is available to present on a given topic.

These guidelines recognize the value to a Local Group and to the region when Local Group officers and potential Local Group officers have the opportunity to interact with nationally active Mensans in the LDW environment. As many nationally active leaders are qualified to present on many topics, RVCs are encouraged to limit the use of nationally active Mensans as workshop leaders to those who live nearby or to those who have specialized expertise not available anywhere else.

POLITICS

While any future officer must be aware of Mensa politics, politicking by candidates for Local Group or National Office will not be allowed.

Campaign materials promoting a candidate or a slate of candidates for office will not be allowed to be circulated or displayed at LDWs.

Campaign speeches or remarks about candidates for office will not be allowed.

EVALUATION

Each workshop participant will fill out an evaluation form at the end of the LDW.

The RVC and each of the workshop leaders will also fill out the evaluation form.

(This section will be expanded once it is decided just what we want to evaluate and how to do it.)

The LDC coordinator, or his/her designee, will receive and track all evaluations.

BUDGET

Each RVC should request appropriate funding for a LDW in his/her region prior to AMC budget preparation.

Funding for the LDC must be approved by the LDW Coordinator with concurrence by the AMC LDW committee based on the available funds and limitations set by the AMC budget committee.

LDWs may have differing costs because of geography, local costs or the need to bring in more outside workshop leaders.

FUNDING

The LDW funds are meant to cover the costs of meeting room space, AV rentals, materials, hospitality and one or two common meals for participants, plus moderate travel, lodging and meals expenses for workshop leaders. Postage, telephone, copying and FAX expenses incurred during the planning stage will be reimbursed to the RVC or his/her designate provided accurate records are kept. Other types of expenses may be approved by the LDW Coordinator and the Leadership Development Committee upon satisfactory proof of need. Prior approval of unusual expenses is strongly suggested.

LDW funds also cover expenses incurred by the LDW Coordinator, and expenses incurred by members of the Leadership Development Committee in participating in committee work.

Funding does not cover the cost of travel or lodging for participants. However, at the RVC's discretion, partial assistance may be provided to an interested and effective Local Group leader in a hardship situation. Local groups are encouraged to assist with expenses their members incur in attending a LDW.

The RVC may establish a registration fee of the projected per-participant cost which may be assessed on:

- An out-of-region participant who has already attended a LDW in his or her own region within the Mensa fiscal year (April 1-March 31).
- An in-region participant who has already attended a LDW outside his/her region within the Mensa fiscal year.
- A non-Mensa spouse, significant other, friend, or other person who attends with the participant and joins in at meals and in hospitality.

Expenses incurred for the LDW normally will not be reimbursed until the Leadership Development Coordinator has received attendance records, evaluations, sample handouts, and the RVC's expense report with supporting documentation.

Funding may vary from LDW to LDW because of duration of the workshop, geography or local costs.

AMC guidelines for expense reimbursement will be followed.

PLANNING

At least three months before the planned date of the LDW, the RVC shall submit to the LDW Coordinator a plan including the following:

- Proposed location (community)
- Proposed venue (hotel, motel, corporate meeting room, etc.)
- Proposed curriculum and workshop leader for each topic
- Proposed budget including cost for meeting space, costs for workshop leaders and other projected costs if estimated.
- Information about the host Local Group, and the members there who will be involved in helping put on the LDW.
- Information about plans to publicize the LDW within the region.

The LDW Coordinator will review the plan for conformance to these guidelines, and work with the RVC or designate to bring the plan into conformance.

Once the plan is in conformance, the LDW Coordinator will forward it to the Chairman of the AMC's Leadership Development Committee for that committee's review.

When the LD Committee has approved the plan, the LDW Coordinator will authorize the National Office to issue checks against the budget, except for those expenses which cannot be reimbursed until the required reports have been submitted.

The RVC may designate a member of the host group or other member in the region to plan and execute the LDW. However, the RVC bears ultimate responsibility for the program and use of the funds.

RVCs are encouraged to plan far enough ahead to allow publicity for the LDW to appear in at least two issues of each Local Group newsletter in the region, in InterLoc and in the Gatherings information in Bulletin.

Whenever a LDW is scheduled for a location near the boundary of another region, the RVC is encouraged to make every effort to publicize the LDW in the neighboring region.

FOLLOWUP

Within six weeks after the conclusion of the LDW, the RVC or his/her designate shall forward all requested materials and reports to the LDW Coordinator.

COORDINATOR

The AMC shall appoint a national LDW coordinator who, under the guidance of the AMC Leadership Development committee, will assist the RVCs.

The coordinator's duties will include:

- To maintain an approved LDW handbook, the contents of which will be used as a guideline for establishing the curriculum for a LDW.
- To work with the LDW Committee, the objectives/curriculum developers and the National Office to keep the LDW handbook, presentation materials and handouts current.

- To develop a standardized LDW evaluation form to be used at all LDWs.
- To assist RVCs with the timing and venue of all LDWs.
- To maintain a listing of speakers and topics.
- To coordinate evaluation of LDWs and their presenters, to evaluate the benefit of LDWs to Mensa and the involved local groups.
- To maintain a listing of LDW attendees.
- To report on the progress of LDW programs to the AMC at least annually.
- To distribute LDW funding as equitably as possible, authorize use and payment of LDW funding, and monitor and report quarterly to AMC on LDW funds."

The coordinator may perform the above functions him/herself or may delegate functions to qualified people approved by the Leadership Development Committee.

APPENDIX 3: Guidelines for Mensa Colloquium Host Groups:

(see 1990-023)

Amended on March 25, 1990

Guidelines for Mensa Colloquium Host Groups

Approved 1990 by American Mensa, Ltd. and
The Mensa Education and Research Foundation
(MERF)

Mensa's purposes are to identify and foster human intelligence for the benefit of humanity; to encourage research on the nature, characteristics, and uses of intelligence; and to provide a stimulating intellectual and social environment for its members.

In keeping with these goals, in 1980, American Mensa's then-chairman, Gabe Werba, proposed an annual Colloquium, saying ". . . I want to stimulate within Mensa a climate of intellectual excitement in which concepts can be explored, dialogues can be started, and ideas can be generated that will move us in new directions." The first Colloquium was held in October 1982, citing as its purpose: "To offer a forum for any interested Mensan to explore, debate, evaluate, and offer judgment on a major issue of long-range importance to society."

Using the format of that first Colloquium as a springboard, each Colloquium that followed made experimental changes, learning from previous experiences and trying some new features. It should be emphasized from the start that, while Colloquia share with Annual and Regional Gatherings those organizational chores necessary for the smooth performance of any conference or convention, the participants are coming primed to discuss whatever topic is to be presented, not primarily to socialize, although there will also be ample time to do that. This is an American Mensa event -- a national gathering with a serious purpose.

Organization of the Colloquia from the first was to be a three-way partnership among American Mensa, Ltd. (AML), the Mensa Education and Research Foundation (MERF), and a host group. AML and MERF would provide expert guidance and assistance through a wide array of resources available nationally, enhanced prestige through the use of their name and logo as a national effort, and national advertising and media coverage. The Local Group would plan, staff, and structure the actual event. Benefits would result for each of the partners: AML, MERF, and the Local Group would benefit from an improved public image, enhanced pride of the membership, and improved recruitment and retention.

The main concerns of AML and MERF are that the Colloquia are conducted in a professional and cost-effective manner to achieve these overall objectives that lend credence to the purposes of Mensa, and that they provide benefits to all participants.

These guidelines are supplied to assist your group in preparing its bid to host a Colloquium and to provide an outline for the tasks and responsibilities you will be undertaking if your bid is successful. Contact your RVC and the National Membership Officer for assistance in exploring the feasibility of hosting a Colloquium.

HOST AGREEMENT: The Host Group Agreement between your group and the sponsors, AML and MERF, specifies the contractual arrangements for a Colloquium; a copy should accompany these guidelines. Read this agreement carefully and be sure your group understands its provisions. Some of the clauses are negotiable, but any such negotiations must precede the signing of the contract. The contract will be signed as soon as possible after your bid has been accepted by both the American Mensa Committee (AMC) acting for AML, and by the MERF Board of Trustees. At the time that the AMC and MERF accept your bid, a representative or liaison will be appointed to sign on behalf of each group.

Be sure you have the support of your Local Group membership for hosting the Colloquium. With all the work involved and advance planning, a willing and cooperative team behind it can increase your chances of success. If more than one Local Group will be cooperating to host the Colloquium (Colloquium IV was a joint effort of three groups), be sure that the division of responsibilities is clear and that the Host Group Agreement is modified to reflect the joint nature of the hosting agreements.

PROCEEDINGS: The host group may choose to have MERF publish the proceedings of the Colloquium as a monograph, to provide audio tapes, or both. Arrangements should be made in advance of the event with MERF if publication is desired.

TOPIC: The topic and a brief description of how it will be elaborated is the most important part of the bid for hosting a Colloquium. It should be "a major issue of long-range importance to society", one that invites discussion by the audience, and it should be divisible into a number of "tracks" or sub-topics for small-group discussion in breakout sessions.

ADVANCE PLANNING: About 18 months -- minimum -- is needed to plan for a Colloquium. The site selection (the facility) is the first matter to be considered. The services of a professional convention planner may be utilized to negotiate a competitive contract. Next, the speakers should be contacted and secured to speak. When these two are out of the way, it is possible to get your fliers and publicity material in ample time. The National Office can provide assistance with publicity. Hold your costs to a minimum. Plan carefully and leave nothing to chance, such as speakers' fees and special arrangements for speakers (transportation, meals, AV equipment, etc.) Check to see if an airline will offer a discount to participants. It is a good idea to have representatives of your Colloquium Committee attend any and all Colloquia that occur while your Colloquium is in preparation, both to provide advance publicity for your event and to benefit from as much "colloquium experience" as possible.

COMMITTEES: It is important to draw on the experience of previous Colloquium reports and committee members. The basic Colloquium Committee should probably include a Chairman, a Treasurer, a Registrar, and the LocSec (and a Liaison if more than one host group is involved). All important matters should be in the hands of these few people, answerable in turn to the representatives of AML and MERF who will be appointed at the time a Colloquium bid is accepted. In addition, you will want to take charge of such functions as corporate fund raising, speakers, Facilitators and Recorders, hospitality, hotel liaison, meals, program scheduling, and publicity.

BUDGET: The Colloquium is not expected to be a big money-maker for the host group, but should budget to go a little over expenses: any surplus is split between the group and (see contract) AML and MERF. Any speaker's fees and/or expenses you agree to pay must be taken out of the proceeds or out of grants or contributions you can elicit from corporate sponsors. You may be able to raise some funds by selling ad space in the program book. Be sure to monitor costs carefully all through your planning process and decide in the last month or two before the Colloquium whether such expenses as hospitality supplies can be trimmed (if costs are running high) or expanded (if a surplus is likely). Previous Colloquia have attracted 83 to 281 participants.

FACILITIES: Depending on what is available in your area, you may choose to hold the Colloquium at a hotel or motel, at a state park lodge, or at a local college or university. Cost is important. Hotels and motels are competitive, colleges and universities are grateful for income and anxious to please, and state park lodges almost always have a waiting list but fees are attractive and usually set in cement. Shop around. Contact the continuing Education Department of colleges and universities for information about their ability to handle a Colloquium.

Regardless of the facilities, the following must be checked:

1. All meeting space and a sufficient number of sleeping rooms should be accessible to the handicapped.
2. Have written agreements, covering everything, with the chosen facility. Avoid cancellation penalties.
3. If reservations can be made directly at the facility, have participants do so, ideally by using cards or envelopes supplied by the facility. If they are made with you, forward them or notify the facility at once. Make arrangements for special room rates to be extended for early or late arrivals. (And don't forget to offer to match up participants who may want to share quarters.)
4. If dormitories or a park lodge will be used for the sleeping rooms, make sure linen service and soap are included in the contract.
5. Specify that only one person, or at most two, is authorized to sign for charges at the facility. Make sure it is understood that no bills will be paid without the authorized signature(s).
6. If held at a facility where there are other guests, for the convenience of all, try to locate everything in one area.
7. Ensure that space is adequate for the anticipated attendance -- main room for plenary sessions; sufficient size and number of breakout rooms for subsequent sessions; large enough banquet room for meal functions; enough space, without crowding, in smoking and nonsmoking conversation rooms; adequate registration space. You may also need to reserve a room for a meeting of the MERF Trustees.
8. Hotels, motels and most schools will allow you to serve your own wine in the conversation rooms in the evening. State lodges usually prohibit alcoholic beverages. If cash bars can be arranged, you may do so, but alcohol is not a priority.

SPEAKERS: The usual format includes a Keynote Speaker, who presents the subject of the Colloquium, and two or three others who are knowledgeable in the subject but have diverse points of view. Do not overlook your own members for these roles, but remember that this is a national event and must have some "known" names to draw well.

THE KEYNOTE SPEAKER is usually presented on Friday evening after the dinner hour, and the other speakers early Saturday morning before breakout sessions (discussions) begin. Time will be saved if the bulk of the speaker's credentials are printed in the program and introductions are kept as short as possible. Set a time limit for each speaker; 30 to 45 minutes constitutes a suitable presentation, but the speaker must be well prepared and must stick to the topic.

If you plan for a question-and-answer period of about 15 minutes after each Saturday morning speaker, provide a standing microphone in a center aisle so the entire audience will be able to hear the questions. At both the speaker sessions and breakout sessions, there should be no smoking.

BREAKOUT SESSIONS: The Saturday breakfast sessions and a Sunday morning wrap-up session are the heart of the Colloquium. The division of the main topic into tracks, or sub-topics of the main theme, should be described in the program so that participants may choose to concentrate on their particular areas of interest. The first session should take place after the speakers have been heard, and should last until lunch. The afternoon session may last about three and one-half hours with one mid-session 15-minute break. Each breakout room should ideally accommodate 15 to 25 participants comfortably. There should be no smoking during sessions.

READING LIST: A list of suggested and recommended books, magazine articles and pamphlets should be sent to each registrant as early as possible, certainly at least two months before the event. The best source for such a list will be the speakers. The acknowledgment materials sent to registrants should also include a program preview, a map for locating the facility from interstates and airports, and a receipt for the registration fee.

FACILITATORS AND RECORDERS: Facilitators are needed in the breakout sessions to assist group discussions to flow and not become sidetracked or caught in circular reasoning. Recorders are needed to tape or make notes on the sessions. Volunteers for these two important tasks must receive instructions beforehand, during Friday pre-registration sessions. If there are enough volunteers, each team only needs to work during one session, so that they, too, may have time to be participants in the other sessions.

The minimum number of teams will depend on the number of tracks, the number of registrants and the number of rooms available. Ideally, for everyone to actively participate in the sessions, registrants should be divided into groups of 15 to 25. Many larger conference rooms can be sectioned off with sliding or accordion-folding dividers. A large ballroom can be set up with round tables, but more teams will be needed and noise and other minor distractions are inevitable.

FACILITATORS' AND RECORDERS' TRAINING: It is essential to the central Colloquium experience that the breakout sessions be led by trained Facilitators and Recorders. As more Colloquia are held, there will be a growing cadre of members who have been trained for these tasks, but you should assume that it will be necessary to conduct a training session for them on Friday. The point of the training is not only to provide necessary skills in leading, shaping, and recording the single group discussions, but also to build a sense of cooperation and team spirit among them so that they enhance the experience of the participants. You may wish to offer free registration to the Facilitators and Recorders as recompense for their work during the Colloquium.

WRAP-UP: A wrap-up session, in which one person from each facilitator/ recorder team summarizes the activities of the previous day's sessions, may be held on Sunday morning before the brunch or luncheon. The wrap-up should also be recorded and condensed for a follow-up report, which may be printed for sale to the participants and all Mensans, or distributed free to registrants.

PUBLICITY: Every group should have a printer or layout artist who can prepare a professional- looking flier with registration and reservation forms. Your materials will also look more professional if you have a logo or other design element that is used on all fliers, PR items, the name badges, programs, etc. Fliers can be made available at Annual and Regional Gatherings, and paid display ads should appear in the Bulletin several months before the date of the Colloquium. Write-ups in InterLoc and The Bulletin, describing the topic and giving a suggested reading list, will help immensely. The National Office Marketing Director can assist in placing ads in select national or regional publications to obtain maximum exposure for Mensa.

The advantages that can be produced through publicity of a serious Mensa Colloquium should never be overlooked. Make the most of the opportunity to attract new or possibly lapsed members. Appoint an able, hard-working local Publicity Chair (check with the LocSec or RVC for PR or marketing professionals who could help) and make sure this person works with the Marketing Director in the National Office to coordinate national publicity for the Colloquium.

LOCAL MEDIA PRESS RELEASES should be sent (early on and then again as the Colloquium nears) to the local newspapers and radio/TV stations. Spokespersons should be booked on local TV and radio, if possible.

LOCAL GROUP ATTENDANCE: Do everything possible to encourage attendance by members of your Local Group and neighboring groups. Participation in the Colloquium will make them more enthusiastic members for the rest of the year and increase activity and group participation for some time. You may wish to give committees, members, and volunteers a slightly reduced price on registration and/or meal package.

If you are also publicizing the Colloquium to the general public, you may need to carry additional insurance -- check with the National Office. It may be appropriate to charge a "non-Mensan" rate for attendance.

CONVERSATION ROOMS: These equivalents of Hospitality Suites are provided to give participants an opportunity to mingle and socialize. The refreshments are not supposed to replace meals, but just be good quality snack foods. Wine and beer, if they are served, may be served only in the evenings. Blocks of cheese are appropriate, as well as other snack items, soft drinks, coffee and tea. If wine and beer are served, try to arrange to bring in your own. Plan to serve juice, coffee, tea, rolls, yogurt, etc., in the mornings. Add enough to the registration fee to take care of these hospitality costs.

Conversation rooms should be closed during the sessions and by 1 a.m. so that participants are fresh and alert the following morning. Try to arrange for Saturday coffee or snack breaks to be served near the meeting rooms rather than having to open (and staff) the conversation rooms. Arrange for housekeeping, trash removal and vacuuming to keep the room neat.

MEALS: Meal functions provide a vital occasion for socializing while continuing conversations with other participants. For Friday dinner, if it is not included in the meal package, and for those who do not purchase the meal package, have a list of various nearby restaurants available and more local Mensans to serve as hosts for directions and/or transportation. Plan for a Saturday luncheon, a Saturday evening banquet, and a Sunday luncheon or brunch. Buffet meals are acceptable and may help hold down costs. Be sure meal prices include tax and tip. You may wish to price your meal package so that there is a slight advantage over the price of each meal bought separately.

SEATING AT MEALS: Round tables seating 8 to 10 are preferable since participants will most likely carry conversations from sessions to meals. Most hotels are equipped to provide this type of set- up. A head table may be needed for the Saturday evening banquet. Keep the smokers and non- smokers on opposite sides of the room, and mark these areas clearly.

SATURDAY EVENING FESTIVITIES: After announcements, introductions, etc. some sort of diversion, preferably incorporating the theme of the Colloquium, should be offered. After a hard day's work, participants will want to relax and enjoy. This will be the one occasion during the Colloquium that can be strictly entertainment. Even so, something relative to the Colloquium topic can be presented. And after sitting all day, most participants will enjoy an active function of some kind.

Be sure to have a podium, microphone, and sound system. Have the dishes cleared before the program begins, if at all possible. The position of Master of Ceremonies should be filled with care.

REGISTRATION: If the Colloquium will be held at a college or university, the school, under your direction, will probably take care of registration, name tags, meal tickets, etc. If it is held at a hotel or lodge, the host group will be in charge of the registration desk.

Make the registration desk convenient and visible, and have it open about 10 a.m. on Friday. Have envelope kits made up in advance with nametags, meal tickets, program, note pad, pen or pencil, and a floor plan or map or session room locations enclosed. Also enclose a questionnaire to get participants' reactions to the various features of the Colloquium and suggestions for future colloquia. Mark any amount due on the envelope and show whether meal tickets are enclosed or must be purchased. Have each arriving participant sign in as the envelope is handed out. Keep the registration desk open for late arrivals or leave word where the Registrar can be found.

NAME TAGS: Have an artist or printer make up an attractive design on which you will have the names and home towns printed in large letters, and enclose them in plastic cases, stapled or taped so that the card cannot fall out. Announce in your program that nametags are evidence of registration and must be worn for admittance to sessions and conversation rooms. Ribbons may be attached to identify the wearer, e.g., different colors for speakers, facilitators/recorders, host committee members, AMC members, MERF Trustees, etc.

REGISTRANTS LIST: Print out a list, as late as possible, of all advance registrants for distribution at registration time. If all guests sign in on arrival, anyone can then see who is expected and whether or not they have arrived.

MESSAGE CENTER: Provide a large bulletin board in the registration area for announcements. Also provide a place where messages can be left with cards or paper, pencils and thumbtacks.

EMERGENCIES: Prepare a list of local hospital, fire, ambulance, and other emergency services for use by all your committee members. Ask the facility at which the Colloquium is held to advise of how to handle emergencies (e.g., contact the Front Desk by dialing "0", dial 911 for police, etc.)

Speakers may have books or other materials for sale; order forms for purchase of session and wrap-up tapes should also be available. Literature about how to join Mensa should also be on hand for non-members' questions. Have tables where such materials may be exhibited and/or purchased. If there is room, you may also make display space available to nonprofit groups that have information relevant to the Colloquium topic.

Follow up the Colloquium with articles describing what took place. Arrange for a photographer to take good quality black-and-white photographs of significant events and aspects of the Colloquium for The Bulletin, the local newsletter, and area newspapers. Select subjects with news value and emphasize the speakers or other celebrities. Candid head and shoulder shots of groups of two or three people are best, plus shots of sessions and speakers, but be sure that the photographer does not disrupt the breakout sessions. Enlargements that can be cropped to 3" x 3" are most usable for The Bulletin and local newsletters. Interested newspapers may prefer other sizes or color photos.

COLLOQUIUM HOST AGREEMENT

This agreement is entered into by and between American Mensa Ltd. ("AML"), American Mensa Education and Research Foundation ("MERF"), and _____, a local group of AML, which has been designated to serve as the host for _____ being held in _____. The parties acknowledge their awareness of and agreement with the following conditions, responsibilities, and requirements:

1. In consideration of being awarded the right to host _____, the Host Group promises to perform its obligations under this Agreement and to produce the Colloquium in conformity with established custom and substantially as set forth in its bid and/or supplementary communications.
  2. The Host Group attests generally to the accuracy of its bid to host the Colloquium, and specifically to the availability and price of accommodations at the designated hotel, provisions for early arrivals and late-stayers, alternative accommodations, meal prices, and main program features set forth in its bid and/or supplementary communications.
  3. The Host Group may elect to manage the Colloquium through a semi-autonomous Colloquium Committee. If that is done, the Host Group may delegate to the Colloquium Committee such authority as deemed appropriate, but the Host Group shall not delegate its responsibility. The Host Group remains responsible for the performance of its duties under this Agreement.
  4. Prior to signing any contract over $500, the Host Group shall forward a clear and complete copy of the contract to the designated representative of AML and of MERF. Within fourteen days after receipt, the AML and MERF representative shall review the contract for errors, omissions, and potential problems and shall advise the Host Group of their findings. The Host Group shall furnish AML and MERF a copy of each contract executed by the Host Group.
  5. The Host Group, with the advice and consent of the AML and MERF representative, shall prepare a written statement of policy regarding volunteers' reimbursable expenses, complimentary registrations, rooms, and meals.
  6. Although the Colloquium is a joint venture between AML, MERF, and the Host Group for the benefit of the members of American Mensa, AML and MERF will ultimately be held accountable for the production of the Colloquium as a national Mensa event. Therefore, the AML and MERF representatives must be kept informed of the progress of preparations for the Colloquium. Whenever matters arise that may seriously affect the Colloquium, the Host Group must promptly notify the AML and MERF representatives and must consult with them prior to making any material changes to the accepted plan. By way of illustration but not of limitation, some of the matters that could "seriously affect a Colloquium" are the following:

Contract problems; substantial cost escalation; major program changes; need to change facilities; need to limit attendance (either overall or at specific events); serious discord within the Host Group (or its Colloquium Committee); changes in the management of the Host Group's Colloquium Committee; advance registrations falling short of projections; and/or a substantial projected net loss.
- In the event that it appears to the AML and MERF representative that the Host Group is or may be unable to perform its obligation hereunder, then the Host Group shall be notified of the concerns and shall be given a reasonable amount of time to take corrective action. In the event the Host Group is unable or unwilling to take such corrective action as may be necessary, the AML and MERF shall have the right to assume the management of the Colloquium or to revoke its award to the Host Group and to designate another local group as the host of the _____ Colloquium.
7. The Host Group shall arrange for accommodations, meals, and hospitality for attendees, suitable space for program presentation, speakers, and publicity within Mensa. AML and MERF will arrange for external publicity and will provide support, ideas, and feedback, and will act as a resource for the Host Group.
  8. Upon the request of the Host Group, AML will lend seed money of $ _____ to the Host Group, and MERF will lend seed money of $ _____ to the Host Group. Requests for additional loans may be submitted to the AML Executive Committee for its consideration. All loans are to be promptly repaid from Colloquium revenues and the repayment shall be provided for prior to the computation or distribution of any net income.
  9. All Colloquium monies shall be kept separate from local group funds. If the account set up and used by the Host Group to receive and pay out Colloquium monies is not interest-bearing, a second, interest-bearing account shall be set up to hold such monies until they are needed to pay expenses. Each Colloquium account shall have at least one more person (preferably a representative of AML or MERF) as an authorized signatory than is required to issue checks or other wise authorize withdrawals. Copies of all statements, deposit receipts, and checks or withdrawal receipts for the Colloquium account(s) shall be provided to AML and MERF upon request.
  10. The host group shall make quarterly reports to the AMC and MERF, through the designated liaison, from selection to six months before the Colloquium, and monthly reports from six months before the Colloquium to the closing of the Colloquium books.
  11. Within forty-five days after the close of the Colloquium, the Host Group shall prepare and furnish to AML and MERF an interim account of all monies received and disbursed in conjunction with the Colloquium. Within one hundred twenty days after the close of the Colloquium, the Host Group shall prepare and furnish to AML and MERF a complete and accurate account of all monies received and disbursed in conjunction with the Colloquium. In the event all financial transactions have not been concluded at the end of one hundred twenty days, the Host Group shall prepare and furnish such additional accounting(s) as are appropriate to the circumstances. AML and MERF shall have the right to audit said accounts. If the Host Group shall fail to properly account, all costs of an audit shall be paid by the Host Group, unless the auditors recommend otherwise.

APPENDIX 4: Principles of Conduct of AMC Officers:

(see 1986-085, 1989-042, 2001- 060, and 2004-005)

(Reprinted from the AMC Handbook)

Amended on March 20, 2004

Members of the American Mensa Committee (AMC) are both the directors and officers of American Mensa, Ltd. (AML). As directors, we must concern ourselves with the overall well being, operation, and future of the Society. We must assume the responsibility of developing policies to further its long-range interests. At the same time, as officers, we must concern ourselves with our specific functional areas and with carrying out AML policies and AMC Actions Still in Effect in those areas.

Having agreed to serve on the AMC – and having been elected or appointed to that body – we must recognize our obligation to the membership, to the entire membership as directors, to fulfill our functions and responsibilities. That obligation is not only quasi-contractual, it is also fiduciary.

To serve the membership well, we must not only perform our individual functions and responsibilities faithfully and to the best of our ability, but we must also strive always, to increase the efficiency and effectiveness of AMC as a body. We must recognize that a body divided by discord, by self-dealing or by political machination cannot operate efficiently and effectively, cannot deliver on its obligation to serve the membership. We must recognize that one of our major responsibilities is to preserve AMC as an institution, to enable it to perform as a working body. This requires defending it from attack; requires abstaining from personal attacks on colleagues; requires respecting other officers, including the Ombudsman, and their functions; requires striving for harmony; and requires maintaining AMC's collegiality.

If we believe that a colleague is acting improperly, or failing to take necessary action, we should make every reasonable effort to communicate our concern directly to the colleague before taking any other action. If communication with the colleague does not produce satisfactory results, we should then communicate our concern to the Chairman. We should make every effort to resolve the situation on an informal basis – if necessary, calling for a pre-AMC meeting executive session to attempt resolution of the situation. Taking the problem to the membership, going public with it, should be a last resort, a final recognition that AMC as a body cannot deal with the problem.

We of the AMC should always be cognizant of the vital difference between communicating as individuals and communicating as officers in the performance of our duties. We must, therefore, avoid communicating on our official letterhead stationery when the subject matter of our communication is personal opinion not related to our office and in the performance of our duties, or when use of the letterhead might tend to give the false impression that the communication represents the opinion or decision of the AMC. Should we have reason to communicate with a Local Group or one of its officers, we should send a courtesy copy of the communication(s) to the RVC.

Because of our office, we have a special responsibility to check facts firsthand, to speak directly to all the principals, and to familiarize ourselves with the issues involved before making any public statements. We must recognize that to do otherwise may raise false issues; may be wantonly divisive and result in a climate damaging to membership retention and development; and may cause untold harm to individuals, to Local Groups, and to the Society. We must recognize that the time and effort expended trying to clear up misunderstandings and acrimony are time and effort taken away from carrying on the business of the Society, as well as time and effort taken away from our members and owed to them.

Having been elected or appointed to serve on AMC, we must recognize our obligation to help make that body work efficiently and effectively. This means recognizing that while disagreements regarding goals, policies, procedures, etc., are inevitable, comments and communications regarding such disagreements should be phrased to make it clear that the subject of those disagreements are the actions, not the individuals. Ad hominem remarks concerning colleagues and AMC itself are inappropriate, divide the committee, damage – sometimes permanently – the collegiality of that AMC, and often make it near impossible to work as a body on the business of the Society.

So that the committee can work most efficiently and effectively, it is important to recognize the specific functions and responsibilities of each officer.

1. The Chairman is the chief spokesman for both AMC and the Society. The Chairman is responsible for conducting the Society's business in a fair, orderly, and timely manner. The Chairman, as Chief Executive Officer, is responsible for providing leadership to AMC and the Society and for the proper functioning of the National Office, acting as supervisor of the Executive Director.
2. The Chairman normally presides at meetings of the AMC. The other members of AMC all have equal status on that body.
3. The First and Second Vice-Chairmen have such duties and the responsibility for such matters as are expressly assigned to them by the Chairman. The First Vice-Chairman also acts as substitute during the Chairman's absence or inability to serve; the Second Vice-Chairman, during the First Vice-Chairman's absence or inability to serve.
4. The Regional Vice-Chairmen are the chief operating officers in their respective regions, and they are responsible for serving the needs of the groups in their regions and are responsible for executive supervision of those groups.
5. The Secretary, the Treasurer, and the appointed officers shall have such duties as customarily fall within their functional areas.

6. The Past Chairmen shall provide counsel and may take on such duties and responsibility for such matters as may be beneficial to American Mensa.

7. Absent direction from the AMC or the Chairman, no member of the AMC, other than the Chairman, has the authority or duty to intervene in another member's functional area, e.g., a region, finances, testing, etc.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

Executive Session (closed session) is used to discuss legal issues and personnel matters, including those concerning volunteer personnel. All disciplinary actions are discussed in Executive Session in order to protect all parties from inaccurate information.

All matters discussed in Executive Session are confidential and may not be revealed to those not in attendance, including members of the AMC who were entitled to be there but were not. Matters discussed while a member absented himself for any reason may not be discussed with that member outside of Executive Session. (These latter restrictions are in order to restrict inaccurate information.)

Corporate law requires that all motions and their disposition be recorded. This is customarily done by reporting any motions passed and their movers and seconders into the open record when returning to open session. It is acceptable, however, to instead keep written minutes of the closed session, which then may be approved in open session but cannot be discussed or reviewed in open session.

The AMC may specifically approve exceptions to these restrictions as appropriate.

APPENDIX 5: Policies and Rules Governing the Conduct of Hearings:

(see 1980-105, 1989-017, 2003-003, and 2004-025)

Adopted by the American Mensa Committee
November 29, 1980

Amended March 30, 1985
Amended March 16, 2002
Amended March 29, 2003
Amended March 20, 2004

STATEMENT OF POLICY

These Rules are adopted by the American Mensa Committee ("AMC") in fulfillment of its duty to assure all members of American Mensa, Ltd. ("AML") the opportunity for a fair and impartial hearing of any charges brought under Article IX (5) of the American Mensa bylaws ("bylaws"). These Rules are binding upon all members of AML.

The function of the Hearings Committee is limited to:

1. Receiving and reviewing charges of acts inimical to Mensa;
2. Determining whether sufficient facts have been alleged to warrant a hearing on some or all of such charges;
3. Judging whether or not the preponderance of the evidence presented in a hearing shows the respondent to have committed acts inimical to Mensa;
4. Imposing sanctions, as specified in the bylaws, if the respondent is adjudged to have committed an act or acts inimical to Mensa; and
5. Enforcing these rules.

The Hearings Committee only hears charges of acts inimical to Mensa. The Hearings Committee shall rule only on the facts as presented to it. The Hearings Committee does not exist to resolve personal conflicts between members, nor is it a mediator, arbitrator, or counselor.

All members of the Hearings Committee must maintain an arms-length impartiality in all matters pertaining to charges, or the possibility of charges. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a putative Hearings Committee member who is in the line of succession to the Committee, but not on the Committee as of the time charges are brought, shall not be held to the same standard of arms-length dealing with the Parties as is a standing member of the Committee, but is encouraged to conduct him/herself with the understanding that he/she may be called upon to serve on the Hearings Committee. Members of the Hearings Committee must:

1. Refrain from giving counsel as to whether charges should or should not be filed;
2. Insist that all communications between any individual and a Hearings Committee member with respect to charges or a pending hearing be in writing; and
3. Transmit to the other members of the Hearings Committee all communications received with respect to charges or a pending hearing that have not also been received by the other members.

The Hearings Committee is a standing empowered committee. Its membership is not fixed for the hearing of particular charges until after any challenges to its composition have been decided. Thus, from time to time there may be formed different panels of the Hearings Committee consisting of different members. The three Hearings Committee members finally seated in accordance with these Rules shall be the ones to consider the matter, regardless of subsequent changes in AMC composition that change the makeup of the Hearings Committee under the bylaws. Once charges are filed on a given matter, there will be no changes in the membership of the Hearings Committee, except for those provided for in the bylaws and these Rules.

RULES GOVERNING THE CONDUCT OF HEARINGS

RULE 1

A. Charges of acts inimical to Mensa may be made by any member or group of members, or by the Advocate or one acting under the authority of the Advocate, or by mandate of a majority vote of the members present and voting at an Annual Business Meeting. The party bringing such charges shall be the "Complainant." The party accused of committing the acts inimical shall be referred to as the "Respondent." The Complainant and the Respondent may together be referred to as the "Parties."

B. In the event that charges are brought as the result of a mandate from the members at an Annual Business Meeting, the membership shall be the Complainant, and the Chairman of AML shall select one or more Mensa members to represent the Complainant in the matter.

C. Written communications between the Hearings Committee and the Parties may be transmitted in any form acceptable to the Hearings Committee Chairman (the "H. C. Chair"), including email, fax, regular U.S. Mail, and overnight mail services, but only if the chosen method is available to all of the Parties. The H. C. Chair shall advise the Parties as to which methods shall be acceptable in a given case and the H. C. Chair's decision shall be final. In the event no chosen method is available to all Parties, Regular U.S. Mail shall be the default method. All notices required to be sent to the Parties by the H. C. Chair ("served") shall be deemed served on the day they are sent by the H. C. Chair to the Parties, by whatever means has been selected by the H. C. Chair.

RULE 2

Reserved for future use.

RULE 3

Charges of acts inimical shall be made in writing, signed by the individual(s) making the charges or by the representative of same as defined in Rule 1A or 1B, and contain:

A. A specific statement of each alleged act inimical (each such statement to constitute a "charge"),

- B. The name(s) of the individual(s) alleged to have committed each act,
- C. Sufficient facts in support of each charge to convince the Hearings Committee that a hearing is warranted, and
- D. An acknowledgement by each Complainant that s/he understands that knowingly making a false or misleading oral or written statement to the Hearings Committee is an act inimical for which sanctions may be imposed by the Hearings Committee.
- E. A postal address to which communications from the Hearings Committee to the Complainant may be sent, and, if available, an email address and a fax number for the Complainant. Multiple persons filing charges together shall not designate more than one postal address, email address, or fax number.

RULE 4

Charges shall be "filed" by delivering them to the H. C. Chair identified in the most recent Mensa Bulletin. Supporting documentation may be included with the charges. Charges shall be deemed filed on the date they are received by the H. C. Chair.

RULE 5

- A. The Chair shall, within 30 days of the H. C. Chair's receipt of a complaint, send a notice to the other members of the Hearings Committee, the Respondent, and the Chairman of the AMC that a complaint has been filed. The notice shall also identify the charges alleged in the complaint.
- B. The Hearings Committee shall promptly decide whether the facts alleged warrant a hearing on any of the charges. The H. C. Chair shall serve a copy of this decision on each of the Parties, and on the AMC's Chairman, within 60 days after the H. C. Chair's receipt of the complaint. Should the Hearings Committee decide that a hearing is not warranted, the charges will be deemed dismissed and no further action shall be taken on the complaint.
- C. If the Hearings Committee decides to hold a hearing, the H. C. Chair shall promptly:
1. Serve upon the Respondent a copy of any supporting documentation furnished by the Complainant.
  2. Transmit to the Parties a list of the names of the three members of the Hearings Committee as originally constituted, plus the names of any members who have succeeded to the Hearings Committee after the Rule 5(B) decision was issued, and finally a list of the names of every remaining potential member of the Hearings Committee as given in Article IX, section 5(a) of the bylaws of AML, in the order in which they would succeed to Committee membership.
  3. (a) The H. C. Chair shall promptly ask the Respondent whether the charges are contested. If the Respondent advises the H. C. Chair that s/he does not contest the charges, but still wants a hearing to determine penalties, the Respondent may ask for a hearing limited to the penalty phase. If the Respondent does not contest the charges and does not want a hearing, the Respondent may waive the right to a hearing, and, if such waiver is made, the Hearings Committee may render a decision without actually holding a hearing (Rule 12).

(b) A Respondent's failure to timely cooperate with the Hearings Committee or the hearings process may be considered by the Hearings Committee in rendering a decision on the merits.

RULE 6

- A. If any committee member is incapacitated, elects to withdraw from service, or is otherwise unavailable to serve, that member shall not serve on the Hearings Committee. The resulting committee vacancy shall be filled as set forth in the bylaws. If a new member is added to the Hearings Committee to fill a vacancy, that new member is subject to challenge as provided for below.
- B. Any Party may challenge any members of the Hearings Committee, and any potential members of the Hearings Committee as given in Rule 5(C)(2) above, by filing a written challenge with the H. C. Chair. Any and all such challenges to Hearings Committee members and potential members must be received by the H. C. Chair no later than fifteen calendar days after the H. C. Chair has served upon the Parties the list of Committee members and potential Committee members per Rule 5(C)(2). Each challenge shall state the name of the member being challenged and the reasons for the challenge.
- (1) All challenges to potential Hearings Committee members shall be held in abeyance until such time as the potential member succeeds to Committee membership.
  - (2) The other members of the Hearings Committee, i.e., those members of the Hearings Committee who have not been challenged, shall decide the challenge. If the challenge is sustained, the challenged member(s) shall not serve on the Hearings Committee and the vacancy shall be filled as set forth in the bylaws and these Rules.
  - (3) In the event that all three Hearings Committee members are simultaneously challenged, the Ombudsman shall decide all three challenges. The Ombudsman shall serve copies of this decision on the three members of the Hearings Committee and the Parties, using the method designated by the H. C. Chair under Rule 1(C). The Ombudsman shall only decide challenges if there is no "other member" of the Hearings Committee who is not challenged. Should a challenged member(s) recuse him/herself prior to service of a decision by the Ombudsman, then the Ombudsman shall not issue a decision on any of the pending challenges. The new member of the Hearings Committee, and not the Ombudsman, shall decide the remaining one or two challenges under Rule 6(B)(2). If the new member was also challenged, the decision as to all three challenged members will again revert to the Ombudsman, unless another Hearings Committee member recuses him/herself prior to the Ombudsman's service of his/her decision on the H. C. Chair. The Ombudsman shall decide all three challenges in the same decision.

- C. The Hearings Committee (or Ombudsman, as appropriate) shall notify the Parties, the Chairman of the AMC and the Ombudsman of its decision regarding any and all challenges.
- D. In the event that the list of persons eligible to serve on a Hearings Committee pursuant to the bylaws is exhausted by challenges, recusals, or otherwise, additional Hearings Committee members shall be selected as follows, in accordance with the membership and interest criteria listed in the bylaws for the original Hearings Committee members: first, the three most recent Treasurers who are not currently serving on the American Mensa Committee; then the most recent RVC from each Region who is not currently serving on the AMC, ordered by a random draw conducted by the Ombudsman; then the second-most recent RVC from each Region who is not currently serving on the AMC, ordered by a random draw conducted by the Ombudsman; and then the third-most recent RVC from each Region who is not currently serving on the AMC, ordered by a random draw conducted by the Ombudsman.

RULE 7(A)

If the Hearings Committee determines that a hearing shall be held, the time, means, and venue thereof shall be determined by the Hearings Committee as finally constituted after all challenges have been resolved. The hearing shall not be set for a date sooner than thirty days after notice of the charges has been served upon the Respondent. Notice of the date and venue of the hearing shall be served on the Parties by the Hearings Committee Chair or by the Arbitrator (see Rule 7(B)).

RULE 7(B)

At any time up until seven days after the H.C. Chair has served the notice described in Rule 7(A), the Respondent may waive his/her right to a hearing before the Hearings Committee, and may elect instead to proceed before a single arbitrator to be selected by the American Arbitration Association as the finder of fact. If the Respondent chooses to use an AAA arbitrator as the finder of fact, the AAA process shall be conducted according to the AAA Rules, and shall take the place of Rules 9, 10, and 11 herein. If the Respondent chooses to use the AAA as the finder of fact, the decision of the Arbitrator shall be binding on the Parties."

RULE 8

- A. The Hearings Committee may appoint persons to assist it for any purpose. No person who has any direct interest in the charges may be so appointed.
- B. The Hearings Committee may appoint persons to assist a Party in the interest of providing a fair hearing or to otherwise prevent manifest injustice.

RULE 9

All decisions of the Hearings Committee regarding any matter, at any time, shall be made by majority vote of the Hearings Committee as then constituted. The reasoning behind such decisions shall not be publicly disclosed, but may be disclosed to the AMC, in executive session, in connection with its review of the Hearings Committee's report, if any, pursuant to Rule 13.

RULE 10

The following procedures shall apply to all hearings:

- A. The Parties are responsible for presenting sufficient evidence to support or refute the charges;
- B. Each Complainant shall be offered a reasonable opportunity to present all relevant evidence in support of the charges;
- C. Each Respondent shall be offered a reasonable opportunity to present all relevant evidence in defense against the charges;
- D. The Parties may call and question witnesses in their behalf at the calling Party's own arrangement and expense, and the Parties themselves may be called and questioned as witnesses;
- E. The Hearings Committee shall have the right to call and question witnesses and to question any witness called by the Parties;
- F. Any Party shall have the right to be represented by another person of his or her choosing;
- G. The Hearings Committee may authorize and limit discovery as it sees fit;
- H. All "in person" hearings shall be recorded by audio recording or a similar medium ("verbatim record"), for the sole purpose of assisting the Hearings Committee in preparing its Decision. Such verbatim record shall be retained at the AML National Office until the matter is finally concluded in accordance with Rule 13(E). Once the matter is finally concluded, such tapes shall be retained for a period of time consistent with AML's record retention policy. In the event that a hearing is held as an on-line chat, the verbatim record may be a hard copy printout of such chat signed by each hearings committee member. The verbatim record shall not be made available to any person other than the Hearings Committee members for any reason, except in the event of a discovery request made in a civil litigation where AML is a party, or under court order or subpoena.
- I. If the Hearings Committee permits or requests that any Party file additional documents or written argument, the Party shall transmit copies to the other Parties at the same time such materials are sent to the H.C. Chair. The other Parties shall have ten days after such materials are served in which to file comments or a response with the Hearings Committee, which comments or response shall also be served upon the other Parties.
- J. Hearings shall be deemed "confidential communications" of AML. Attendance shall be limited to the Parties, the Hearings Committee members, persons representing Parties or asked to assist either Party or the Hearings Committee under Rule 8, the Ombudsman (if requested by either Party), any witnesses to be called, and members of AML as non-participating observers. Witnesses may be asked to leave the room for all or part of the hearing other than their own testimony. The Hearings Committee may, during a hearing, determine that all or part of the hearing be closed to observers.

The Hearings Committee shall have broad discretion with respect to the conduct of hearings, including, but not limited to:

- A. Dismissal of charges;
- B. Limiting any testimony that is irrelevant, cumulative or out of order;
- C. Ruling on the admissibility of documentary or physical evidence;
- D. Ordering that witnesses be sequestered;
- E. Ordering that testimony be given under oath;
- F. Ordering that any disruptive person be removed from the hearing; or
- G. Taking any other action that it deems appropriate or necessary for the fair, orderly, and efficient conduct of the hearing.

RULE 12

A decision shall be rendered by the Hearings Committee or by the Arbitrator, as appropriate, as soon as reasonably possible after the hearing. This decision shall delineate findings of fact and shall state whether, in the opinion of the fact-finder, the respondent has committed an act inimical to Mensa.

If the decision states that the Respondent has committed an act inimical to Mensa, then, regardless of whether the decision was rendered by the Hearings Committee or by an Arbitrator, the Hearings Committee shall decide whether a sanction is warranted. The Hearings Committee may ask for written submissions from the parties regarding possible sanctions, and set time limits for receipt of same, but a live hearing need not be held for the sanction phase if the finding of fact was done by an Arbitrator.

Such sanction may be permanent or may expire upon the passage of a specified period of time, upon the occurrence of specified conditions, or both. The Hearings Committee shall report its decision regarding sanctions in writing and shall attach it to the fact-finding decision; together, these two pieces are referred to in the following rules as the Decision.

At least two members of the Hearings Committee must sign a decision for it to be a decision of the Hearings Committee. Minority reports by Hearings Committee members are permitted. Hearings Committee decisions will normally be drafted by the H.C. Chair, but the H.C. Chair may delegate the drafting to another member of the Hearings Committee or to a Rule 8(A) appointee if desired.

RULE 13

- A. After the Decision has been made final, and if such Decision recommends the suspension or expulsion of a member, the Chairman of AML shall cause such Decision to be copied and distributed to all members of the AMC, prior to the AMC meeting at which the Decision will be reviewed. Such material is deemed confidential information of AML and is to be treated as such.
- B. The Complainant and each Respondent facing suspension or expulsion shall have the right, in person or by his or her representative, to address the AMC at the AMC meeting at which the Decision is reviewed. Each Party intending to address the AMC shall so notify the Chairman of AML such that the notice is received by the AML Chairman or the Executive Director no less than seven calendar days prior to the day of the AMC meeting. Such notice shall also identify any representative who is authorized by the Party and has agreed to speak on behalf of the Party at the AMC meeting.

- C. Each Party shall be permitted to speak to the AMC for a maximum of fifteen (15) minutes. The Complainant may reserve a portion of his or her allotted time for rebuttal. Either Party may request that their presentation be given in Executive Session. Both Parties may be present in such Executive Session for remarks by either Party. After the remarks by the Parties, the Parties shall be excluded from the remainder of such Executive Session.
- D. After the Complainant and the Respondent have been heard (if they have complied with the preceding paragraphs and exercised their rights to speak), the AMC shall vote on whether to accept the Decision. Per ASIE 2001-060, all discussion on such vote, and the vote itself, shall be done in Executive Session. A separate vote shall be taken on each charge for which the Hearings Committee has recommended a sanction of suspension or expulsion.

The AMC shall vote on the portion of the Decision in which the Hearings Committee has recommended a sanction of suspension or expulsion, using options 1, 2, and 3 below. If the Hearings Committee was the finder of fact, the AMC shall also vote on the portion of the Decision in which the Hearings Committee found the facts, using options 4, 5, and 6 below; however, if an arbitrator was the finder of fact, the AMC shall accept without vote the portion of the Decision in which the Arbitrator found the facts.

On each charge for which the Hearings Committee has recommended a sanction of suspension or expulsion, the AMC may:

1. concur with the sanction;
2. reduce the sanction; or
3. eliminate the sanction entirely.

If the Hearings Committee was the finder of fact, the AMC may:

4. agree with the findings of fact;
5. disagree with the findings of fact and dismiss the charges; or
6. disagree with the findings of fact and return the matter to the Hearings Committee for the development of additional facts or for clarification of the decision.

If the Hearings Committee was the finder of fact, the AMC shall vote on the findings of fact before voting on the recommended sanction.

If the matter is returned to the Hearings Committee, i.e., the AMC chooses option 6 regarding the findings of fact, the Decision shall be considered withdrawn. The Hearings Committee shall take such further steps in consideration of the AMC's return of the matter as it deems appropriate. The Hearings Committee shall issue a new Decision that addresses the AMC's stated concerns within a reasonable time. If the Hearings Committee is unable to agree upon a resolution of the AMC's concerns, the AMC shall either accept the findings of fact and vote on the recommended sanction or reject the findings of fact and dismiss the charges.

- E. Any sanctions imposed that do not require AMC review shall take effect immediately upon service of such Decision on the Parties. Any sanctions approved by the AMC, when necessary, shall take effect immediately after AMC approval.
- F. The matter shall be deemed finally concluded as follows:
1. Upon the Hearings Committee's issuance of the Decision, if no sanction is imposed, or if a sanction that does not include suspension or expulsion of the Respondent is ordered.
  2. If a Decision is reviewed by the AMC, when the AMC has voted final action on the matter, which includes any action contemplated in Rules 13(D)(1), (2) or (3); or
  3. If the matter is returned to the Hearings Committee pursuant to Rule 13(D)(4), the matter is concluded after the AMC has voted final action on the new Decision to be issued under that Rule, should such AMC vote be necessary. If the result of the return of the matter to the Hearings Committee is a lesser sanction not requiring AMC approval (or no sanction at all), then the provisions of Rule 13(F)(1) shall then apply.

RULE 14

After the matter is finally concluded under Rule 13(E), all documents that relate to the charges and proceedings held shall be forwarded to the Executive Director for storage in the National Office in accordance with AML's record retention policy, after which they shall be destroyed.

RULE 15

The Hearings Committee is not restricted in any way by actions taken by prior Hearings Committees, and is not bound to follow any precedent from prior matters in making decisions on unrelated matters.

RULE 16

A. Each gender used herein shall include the other gender, and singular shall include plural, and vice versa, as the context requires.

B. The Parties may, by mutual agreement and with the approval of the Hearings Committee, extend or shorten any period of time provided under these Rules.

C.

1. The reasonable and necessary costs incurred by the members of the Hearings Committee; by the Arbitrator, including AAA fees, if an Arbitrator is used; by persons appointed by the Chairman of AML to act on behalf of the membership; by the Advocate; and by persons appointed by the Hearings Committee to assist it, a Complainant, or a Respondent, shall be borne by AML. Requests for reimbursement of any such costs not paid directly by AML shall be supported by receipts or other evidence of payment, in accordance with then-current AML reimbursement procedures.

2. The Hearings Committee is authorized to spend a reasonable amount for such additional costs incurred in connection with a proceeding before it as it deems necessary and appropriate. Requests for reimbursement of any such costs not paid directly by AML shall be supported by evidence of the Hearings Committee's approval and by receipts or other evidence of payment, in accordance with then-current AML reimbursement procedures.

3. The Executive Committee may authorize payment of such additional costs incurred in connection with a proceeding before the Hearings Committee as it deems necessary and appropriate.

D. The Parties (except for the Advocate) and their witnesses shall bear their own costs (including legal fees) unless both the Hearings Committee and the AMC vote to approve reimbursement of some or all of such costs.

E. Amendments to these Rules shall only apply to a matter already initiated upon the unanimous written consent of the Parties.

APPENDIX 6: Procedure to Implement Regional Hearings:

(see 1998-018)

Amended March 28, 1998

A. PREAMBLE

This procedure implements Article IX, section (6) of the American Mensa bylaws. As stated in Article IX, subsection (6)(a), informal mediation and resolution of conflicts are preferred. However, if such good faith efforts to resolve the conflict fail, a party may utilize the procedure outlined below.

B. FILING OF A COMPLAINT

A party wishing to file a complaint under Article IX, Section 6 of the Bylaws of American Mensa shall notify the Regional Vice Chairman of the region in which he is a member of a Local Group, or the Second Vice Chairman if the party is not a member of a Local Group of any region, of the complaint, with a copy to the AMC Chairman or his designee. The RVC shall respond to all parties, and the AMC Chairman or his designee, within 15 days that a complaint has been received and the date on which it was received, along with a list of available arbitrators. The RVC shall send copies of this correspondence to the Local Secretary of each of the parties and to the Ombudsman. The AMC Chairman may appoint another elected AMC member to supervise the regional hearing process if the first AMC member is a party, or was involved in the dispute before receiving the complaint, or does not act within the time limits set in this and subsequent sections.

C. SELECTION OF A REGIONAL HEARING COMMITTEE

(Regional Hearing Panel)

- 1) The American Mensa National Office shall include a questionnaire regarding mediators and arbitrators among the materials sent annually to each Local Secretary. The questionnaire shall ask for the name(s) of the Local Group's mediator(s) and arbitrator(s), the method of selection, e.g. election or appointment, and the officer(s) or group making the selection. The Local Secretary shall complete and return the questionnaire within 30 days. The National Office shall forward this information to the Regional Vice Chairman (RVC) for each Local Group within his region, and shall forward this information for all groups to the Membership Officer.
- 2) Each RVC shall maintain a list of all mediators and arbitrators in his region. The Membership Officer shall maintain a list of all mediators and arbitrators in all regions.
- 3) Every arbitrator is ineligible to serve on a regional hearing panel for any dispute in which the arbitrator's Local Group, or a member of the arbitrator's Local Group, is a party to the dispute.
- 4) When an AMC member receives a complaint, either from a party or by assignment, the AMC member shall within ten days contact each arbitrator on the list of arbitrators for the region in which the member complained against resides, other than the arbitrator(s) from the group(s) of the parties to the dispute, and inquire as to the arbitrator's availability. Arbitrators from another region may also be used if good cause is shown. Upon receiving availability information, the AMC member shall within five days compile a list of all available arbitrators for the particular dispute. The list shall in no case have fewer than five names. The AMC member shall within five days send this list to each party to the dispute, with instructions that the party rank-order the arbitrators, with "1" being the most favorable ranking, and return the list to the AMC member within fifteen calendar days. The AMC member shall retain the list of rankings for possible appeal (see Section E).

- 5) Upon receiving the rankings from the parties, the AMC member shall, within 5 days, compute a combined ranking for each arbitrator by adding the rankings for that arbitrator from all parties. The three arbitrators with the best combined rankings shall be the regional hearing panel for the dispute in question, except that each panel member must be from a different group, i.e. no two from the same group. In the event of a tie for one or more of the three positions, the following procedures shall be followed:
  - a) If three arbitrators receive better combined rankings than the other arbitrators, those three shall be selected for the panel, despite ties within the three combined rankings.
  - b) If more than one arbitrator receives the third-best combined ranking, and two arbitrators receive better combined rankings, the two panel members with the better combined rankings shall be selected for the panel. Those two panelists shall choose the third panel member from among those tied with the third-best combined ranking.
  - c) If more than two arbitrators receive the second-best combined ranking, and one arbitrator receives a better combined ranking, the one panel member with the better combined ranking shall be selected for the panel. That one panelist shall choose the second and third panel members from among those tied with the second-best combined ranking.
  - d) If more than three arbitrators receive the highest combined ranking, the arbitrators with the lowest differences between their rankings shall be selected for the panel. Example: An arbitrator with rankings of "3" and "3" shall be selected over an arbitrator with scores of "1" and "5," as the first has a difference of 0 while the second has a difference of 4. Any ties that remain shall be dealt with as in subsections (b) and (c), as appropriate.
- 6) The AMC member shall within five days notify each member of the regional hearing panel of his selection and of the names and addresses of the other panel members. The AMC member shall ask the panel members to select their own chairman. The panel members shall select their own chairman and shall within five days notify the AMC member of this selection. Within five days of being notified of the selection of the panel chairman, the AMC member shall notify the parties of the names of the panel chairman and the other panel members, and that the panel chairman will contact them regarding the regional hearings procedure.

D. CONDUCT OF REGIONAL HEARINGS

- 1) The regional hearing proceedings shall commence between 21 and 30 days after notification to all the parties, unless an extension is granted for good cause by the AMC member supervising the regional hearing.
- 2) The panel chairman shall coordinate the regional hearing proceedings. All communications to and from the panel during the regional hearing should go through the chairman. In one of his first communications to the parties, and in one of his first communications to the panel members, the chairman shall list each of the complaints in as much detail as he feels necessary. This both ensures that the panel is aware of all the items to be dealt with and notifies the member complained against of them.
- 3) American Mensa, Ltd. is responsible for all reasonable expenses of each regional hearings panel. Each panel member shall keep track of expenses incurred, including receipts when feasible, and periodically submit them to the AMC member supervising the regional hearings. Reimbursement will be made in accordance with then-current standard AML expense reimbursement procedures. At the time of this motion, standard AML expense reimbursement procedures are given in ASIEs 1995-080 and 1995-081.
- 4) Each party to the regional hearing shall have a right to be heard and to present witnesses and documents.
- 5) Each regional hearings panel should ask for written testimony from the parties and witnesses, as well as asking for any documentary evidence the parties want considered. Each panel should then evaluate the written testimony and documentary evidence, and decide whether more information is needed in order to render its decision. If the panel decides it has sufficient information, the panel may render a decision based solely on the written testimony and documentary evidence presented. If the panel decides it needs more information, the panel may ask for more written testimony and documentary evidence; the panel may also call for a live hearing. Though the parties may request a live hearing, the decision of whether to hold a live hearing is the panel's.
- 6) If the panel calls for a live hearing, the panel chairman shall coordinate the planning of the hearing as well as the conduct of the hearing. The hearing should ordinarily be located in the geographic area of the party complained against. However, other considerations, such as the location of witnesses, should also be taken into account when scheduling the hearing. The panel chairman may enlist the aid of others in planning the hearing.
- 7) All live hearings and written testimony are open, i.e. non- confidential. All deliberations by the panel are closed, i.e. confidential. All documentary evidence is open unless the party submitting a document specifically requests in advance that it be held in confidence and the panel concurs with the request. If the panel does not concur with a confidentiality request, the party making the request has the option of submitting the document on a non-confidential basis or withdrawing the document.
- 8) The panel chairman shall retain all writings received by the panel. If a live hearing is called, the hearing shall be recorded, and the panel chairman shall retain the recording. The panel chairman shall retain the entire record of the regional hearings, including all writings and recordings, until the panel has rendered its decision, making copies as necessary for other panel members.
- 9) The regional hearings panel shall issue its ruling(s) in writing within 45 days of the commencement of the regional hearing and within ten days of the live hearing, if one is called, or within ten days of the vote of the committee that a live hearing is not needed, if a live hearing is not called, unless an extension is granted for good cause by the AMC member supervising the regional hearings. Copies of the ruling shall be sent to each party, the AMC member supervising the regional hearing, and the AMC Chairman or his designee. The AMC member supervising the regional hearings shall send copies of the ruling to the Local Secretary of each of the parties and to the Ombudsman.
- 10) After the panel has rendered its decision, the panel chairman shall retain the entire record, including the ruling(s), any and all documents and other writings submitted to the panel, and any and all recording(s) of live hearing(s) held by the panel, during the period for possible appeal. If the decision of the panel is appealed, the panel chairman shall submit the entire record to the AMC member supervising the regional hearings within fifteen days of being notified of the appeal. If the decision of the panel is not appealed, the panel chairman shall submit the entire record to the American Mensa National Office for permanent retention within fifteen days of the end of the period for possible appeal.
- 11) All rulings of the regional hearings panel are final and binding on all parties, except as provided in section E (Appeal). Willful violation of any regional hearings ruling shall be considered good cause for further proceedings by a regional or national hearings committee.

E. APPEAL

- 1) Rulings of a regional hearing panel may be reviewed only under the circumstances listed in this section. In all such reviews, the reviewing body shall limit its proceedings to a review of the record of the regional hearing.
- 2) Rulings of a regional hearing panel may be appealed only by a party to the dispute and only if bias of the regional hearing panel is alleged, except as limited by subsection E.(6). Such appeals must be brought within 60 days of the regional hearing ruling's publication to the parties. Such appeals shall be heard by the American Mensa Committee at its next regularly-scheduled meeting at least 30 days from the date of the appeal, and its jurisdiction is limited to the issue of bias by the regional hearing panel.
- 3) If a decision of a regional hearing panel is appealed to the AMC, the AMC shall make its decision based on the record of the regional hearing and any written appellate arguments the parties wish to submit to the AMC regarding the basis for the appeal, i.e. an allegation of bias. No oral argument by the parties shall be permitted at the AMC appeal, and no oral testimony shall be permitted at the AMC appeal except by the AMC member who supervised the regional hearing. The AMC member who supervised the regional hearing should abstain from all votes regarding the appeal. The AMC may appoint a committee to examine the regional hearing and make recommendations regarding the appeal before the AMC meeting at which the appeal is to be decided.

- 4) If no bias is found, the matter is closed and all rulings of the regional hearing panel must be complied with by all parties in accordance with subsection D.(11).
- 5) If bias is found, the AMC shall return the matter to an elected AMC member for selection of a new panel in accordance with section C (Selection of a Regional Hearing Panel). The AMC member may, but need not, be the same as the one who supervised the original regional hearing. All members of the original panel are barred from service on the new panel. The new panel shall conduct a new regional hearing regarding the original matter in accordance with section D (Conduct of Regional Hearings). The new panel shall not have access to the ruling(s) or record(s) of live hearing(s) of the original regional hearing, but shall have access to any and all documents submitted in the original regional hearing at the request of any party to the AMC member supervising the regional hearing. The AMC member shall obtain copies of the requested materials from the chairman of the first regional hearing panel within fifteen days. The record and documents from the original proceeding shall continue to be preserved in accordance with subsection D.(10).
- 6) No appeal on the basis of bias shall be heard after substantially similar rulings by two regional hearing panels.

F. MISCELLANEOUS

- 1) Every member, employee, and entity of Mensa shall cooperate with arbitration panels by furnishing information or documents. Documents furnished may be originals or copies; in the case of copies, the person responsible for furnishing same must certify that the copies are full, true, and complete copies and that, unless otherwise expressly stated, nothing has been omitted, altered, or added.
- 2) All parties to a pending dispute are prohibited from transferring their memberships by preference to another Local Group while the dispute is pending.
- 3) Members who are suspended from a Local Group, or from holding office in a Local Group, are ineligible for reinstatement during the period of suspension.

APPENDIX 7: Guidelines for Local Group Separations:

(see 1981-043)

Amended May 24, 1981

The following guidelines are intended to be an aid to the group which is in process of dividing to form separate Local Groups. We stress that COOPERATION is the key to a successful separation, and that with cooperation these guidelines become merely a checklist during the process, instead of an aid to sorting out problems during or after a difficult separation.

1. THE SEPARATION PROCESS.

It is very important that the two groups have an agreement as to the separation process and the involvement of each of the groups BEFORE the actual separation! Many of the future groups in American Mensa will be by this method, thus the cooperation of the parties involved, and the RVC, is essential.

A. BALLOTING, OR BY MUTUAL AGREEMENT. If the upcoming separation is the result of planned growth and independence, then the separation may be accomplished by mutual agreement of the LocSecs and the RVC, with a publicized note that any member wishing to be assigned to the parent group rather than the new may do so with a letter to the RVC. If there is a question as to the desires of the membership, then all members of the proposed new group should be balloted by, or under the supervision of, the RVC as to their preference: (1) To separate and form a new group; (2) To separate, but that the individual wishes to remain a part of the parent group by preference; or (3) Not to separate. There should be ample time for the membership to consider this action, and comments pro and con may be presented with the ballot.

B. BYLAWS. All groups must have Bylaws which have been approved, prior to their separation, by the AMC. A suggestion is that the sample bylaws, which meet the Minimum Standards, may be adopted by the members of the proposed new group, with the group information being inserted where pertinent. This will insure rapid approval of the bylaws by the AMC, and amendments may be added by the Local Group later as needed and with the approval of the AMC.

C. BUDGET. Prior to the separation the new group should work with the officers of the parent group AND the RVC to establish a proposed budget to cover their first year of operation. Factors in this budget should include INCOME, such as membership and newsletter subsidies, RVC grants, loans, special fund-raisers and possible separation payments from the parent group, and EXPENSES, such as the newsletter, and administration, operations and recruiting needs.

D. OFFICERS. The election of officers of the new group may be done in conjunction with the adoption of bylaws before the actual separation, or by a separate election after the group has separated from the parent group.

E. PUBLICATION. In many cases the parent group may run for several months a part of their newsletter which has been prepared by the separating group. An alternate is that the RVC may provide funding and labels for the fledgling group to get its newsletter started several months prior to the separation.

F. AMC APPROVAL. The new group becomes recognized as a part of American Mensa through approval of its status as a Local Group by the American Mensa Committee, acting on a motion and recommendation presented by the RVC of that Region.

2. FUNDING.

Funding for the new group is one of the most important factors in helping it to get started. It must be remembered that most Local Groups began when there were no membership or calendar subsidies, and that their treasuries represent careful administration of their funds - they received no "windfall" payment when they started. The sources of funding for the new group are as follows:

A. MEMBERSHIP SUBSIDY. The present (since 12-Sep-1992, see ASIE 1992-054) subsidy to Local Groups is $7.50 per full dues paying member per year and $3.00 per second (or additional) family member who chooses to claim such status per year.

B. NEWSLETTER SUBSIDY. For newsletters sent to the Corporate Subscription and the Local Group Newsletter Exchange, the subsidy is 65 cents per copy, per ASIE 2001-014, 31-Mar-2001.

C. RVC FUND GRANTS. RVC funds are available at the discretion of the RVC to help support the groups, their newsletters, special projects, etc.

D. OTHER GRANTS AND LOANS. ASIE 1991-012, 06-Apr-1991, authorizes the Communications Officer to make discretionary grants for the purpose of obtaining a periodicals class mailing permit, to Local Groups that are currently mailing their newsletters by first or standard class. Interest free loans are available from the American Mensa Executive Committee for special requirements. These loans are guaranteed by RVC funds, thus should be repaid as quickly as possible.

E. ASSETS FROM THE PARENT GROUP. In the case of some larger groups the parent group may have sufficient assets that the separating group may ask for a portion of the treasury, as follows:

1. PHYSICAL ASSETS. Except in the case of equipment purchases shortly before the separation, the physical assets of the parent group should not be considered as part of any division.

2. RG FUNDS. Proceeds from the last Regional Gathering which the group may have held may be divided according to the percentage of attendees from the separating group, after first subtracting any outstanding bills, and any ongoing "float" which is held to finance the startup of the next RG.

3. GENERAL TREASURY. This committee does not recommend any fixed division of the treasury of the parent group, since it is extremely difficult to determine which portion of the funds are actually from membership or calendar subsidies, and which are a result of the parent group's careful administration or their own fund raising activities. A division of the treasury may be made after first subtracting any outstanding bills, RVC fund grants, and funds which were obtained from the parent group's own fund raising activities. If any division is made in this manner, it should be agreed upon by the officers involved and the RVC well in advance of the actual separation.

4. DISTRIBUTION. Proceeds from the parent group may be assigned from the parent group over a period of time, such as 6 months, rather than a lump-sum payment.

NOTE: Other factors, such as the new group having separated in the past, may be taken into account in deciding if there will be any division of the parent group's assets. This is an area where RVC funds may play a great role, since in many cases the parent group may have no appreciable assets.

In conclusion, this committee would like to stress that COOPERATION is the key to a successful separation, and in turn to the healthy growth of new Local Groups through the separation process.

APPENDIX 8: Policies Regarding Mensa's Trademarks and Service Marks:

(see 1996-026, 1999-006, and 2004-099)

Amended September 18, 2004

The word Mensa is both a part of our corporate and trade name, American Mensa, Ltd., and a mark registered with the U. S. Patent and Trademark Office. Our logo, the stylized M and design, is also a registered mark. Both marks are registered as trademarks and as service marks.

The marks are among Mensa's most valuable assets. In order to protect Mensa's rights in the marks, their use must be limited. This policy statement sets forth the conditions under which the marks may and may not be used. All arrangements for commercial use of the Mensa name initiated after the date this policy is adopted are subject to this policy.

I. Entities directly related to Mensa may use the logo or Mensa marks in conjunction with activities conducted for the benefit of a Local Group, a regional gathering, the American Mensa Education and Research Foundation, etc., subject to the following standards:

- A. The logo should be reproduced in a solid, unbroken tone on a solid, unbroken background. If enlarged or reduced in size, the relative proportions of each component of the design must remain unchanged.
- B. The logo may be reproduced in any light color on any dark color or vice versa. The segments within the globe are always to be in the same color as the rest of the background.
- C. The logo may be used in a central position for a symmetrical layout, or offset to one side for an asymmetrical layout, but it should never be placed symmetrically on both sides of a layout. The logo should always be reproduced upright, never on a slant.
- D. The logo may, if desired, appear more than once in a layout (e.g., it could be used beside a series of paragraph headings), but should not be reproduced in more than two sizes on one page or panel. The logo may not be used to form a repeating pattern or border.
- E. The logo may not be used in conjunction with any other elements in such a way that these elements could be interpreted as being a part of the logo design. If a line of lettering is to be placed centrally above or below the logo, its length must not be less than  $2w - 2h$ , where  $w$  = the width of the logo and  $h$  = the vertical distance between the logo and the lettering.
- F. It is permissible to encircle, or partly encircle, the logo with lettering so long as the logo is enclosed in a frame, and conforms to section I.H of these Policies and Rules. The minimum area of clear background left and right of the logo should be one sixth of the width of the logo, and above and below, one twelfth of the width of the logo.

G. The Mensa logo may not be used as a substitute for the letter M in Mensa, or as any letter in any other word.

H. When the logo is enclosed in a frame, such frame should normally be not less than three times the width of the logo in its greater dimension, and not less than five times the square of the width of the logo in area. It may exceptionally be enclosed in a smaller frame if there is some special practical or aesthetic necessity for this arrangement. In this case no other matter may be included within this frame.

I. The logo may be reproduced in three dimensions, but the design and the background should each be in one plane. However, an exception may be made in the case of the segments within the globe, which may be on an intermediate plane or, if desired, on the same plane as the design. In this case the design would have to be in a contrasting tone to the background. The background may be textured, but not boldly patterned.

J. Adjacent to at least one prominent use of the logo and/or the Mensa owned marks on each document or article should be the (R) symbol to give notice that the logo and/or marks is/are registered trademarks or service marks.

II. Without the express permission of the American Mensa Committee, neither the logo nor the Mensa mark may be used:

- A. By any person or group for non-Mensa purposes.
- B. Within the name of a special interest group (SIG), its newsletter, or on any products produced or distributed by the group.
- C. On personal stationery unless the word member or other indication of its non-official use accompanies the mark.

III. If the logo or Mensa mark is to be used on an item for sale, the request for permission to use the mark must include a description of the item and its design, the anticipated cost, the intended sale price, and the name of the entity that will receive the profits from the sales. The request must be signed by the person in charge of the Local Group, regional gathering, etc., that will be making the sales. If permission is granted, all advertisements of the item must note that the use of the logo or Mensa mark has been authorized or licensed by American Mensa, Ltd.

IV. All agreements subject to this policy made contrary to this policy are void.

APPENDIX 9: SIGHT Policies and Procedures:

(see 2001-075)

Amended December 14, 1991

NATIONAL SIGHT COORDINATOR

1. The AMC appoints and approves a NATIONAL SIGHT COORDINATOR. The NATIONAL SIGHT COORDINATOR may select an ASSISTANT NATIONAL SIGHT COORDINATOR whose name will then be submitted to the AMC for approval.
2. The NATIONAL SIGHT COORDINATOR should attempt to enlist a SIGHT Coordinator from each local American Mensa group. Local groups select and submit a candidate's name to the NATIONAL SIGHT COORDINATOR for approval and confirmation (see below for procedure). The LocSec may act as a temporary SIGHT contact for any local group that does not already have one until such time as a COORDINATOR is in place.
3. The NATIONAL SIGHT COORDINATOR and the National Office shall notify each other promptly as changes or updates are received and shall coordinate their lists to prepare for the Mensa Bulletin Directory Listings.
4. The NATIONAL SIGHT COORDINATOR is responsible for informing the local SIGHT Coordinators of any SIGHT contacts, updates to the program, publicity for SIGHT, and other activities associated with SIGHT. The NATIONAL SIGHT COORDINATOR also will ensure that each local SIGHT Coordinator has a complete list of American Mensa SIGHT Coordinators via the Mensa Bulletin Directory or other means. The NATIONAL SIGHT COORDINATOR will see that any new SIGHT Coordinators have a SIGHT Manual and all relevant forms and information, including the ASIEs and Appendixes associated with SIGHT. Other means of publicity are encouraged, such as web pages, shared email lists, and newsletters.
5. Members wishing to use the SIGHT program who contact the NATIONAL SIGHT COORDINATOR directly will be given the contact information of the destination SIGHT Coordinator. It is advisable to supply any Guest with general SIGHT information, including any required forms. This ensures that all parties are aware of expectations. In a continuing effort to improve the program, evaluation on the SIGHT experience is encouraged for participants.
6. A SIGHT Coordinator experiencing any problem with a Guest or Host, or a Guest or Host experiencing any problem with a SIGHT Coordinator, is encouraged to make use of the SIGHT program's Complaint Form. This form may be submitted to the NATIONAL SIGHT COORDINATOR. However, SIGHT Guests, Hosts, and Coordinators are encouraged to settle disputes locally whenever possible.
3. American Mensa encourages and supports the International SIGHT Program and works closely with the International SIGHT Coordinator. The aim of the SIGHT program is to not only bring U.S. SIGHT Coordinators together in mutual interest, but also to forge closer international unions among respective SIGHT participants.

LOCAL GROUP SIGHT COORDINATOR SELECTION PROCEDURE

1. Each local chapter is encouraged to select a SIGHT Coordinator for their group. The LocSec or outgoing SIGHT Coordinator should discuss the position with the volunteer SIGHT Coordinator and give him or her any current printed information on the program - including a SIGHT Coordinator/Host Registration Form (of which use is encouraged), which is sent to the NATIONAL SIGHT COORDINATOR. Information on the SIGHT program will be available on the Mensa Web site, from the NATIONAL SIGHT COORDINATOR, and also from the National Office. Each LocSec should have a SIGHT Manual, which they should provide the nominee for review.
2. Each local group's selection of a SIGHT Coordinator shall be by the procedure outlined in the local group's bylaws for selection of appointed officers. For example, some groups may do this by LocSec appointment, whereas other groups may do this by LocSec appointment with ExComm approval or by other methods.
3. The LocSec, on behalf of the local group, submits the information on the SIGHT Coordinator candidate to the NATIONAL SIGHT COORDINATOR. The submission should include name, membership number, address(es), email(s), confirmation that the Mensa member is in good standing, and contact information.
4. The NATIONAL SIGHT COORDINATOR shall contact the nominated chapter SIGHT Coordinator directly and ask for the completed SIGHT nominee information. This may be via a Registration Form, which may be emailed, printed and sent via regular mail, or faxed to the NATIONAL SIGHT COORDINATOR.
5. Selection of local SIGHT Coordinators is a joint local and national appointment. Upon review of the local group's nomination, the NATIONAL SIGHT COORDINATOR shall promptly inform the successful nominee, LocSec, and the National Office of the confirmation. The National Office shall publish the new SIGHT Coordinator's name in the next available directory issue of the Mensa Bulletin. The LocSec or Editor should announce the new SIGHT Coordinator's appointment in the local newsletter; the newsletter should continue to list the SIGHT Coordinator information in the officer listings. If the nominee is not appointed, the NATIONAL SIGHT COORDINATOR and the LocSec will work together to find a SIGHT Coordinator for the group.
6. Each SIGHT Coordinator shall maintain a list of all available Hosts in the local group. This list should indicate name, location, availability of public transportation if any, smoking or non-smoking preference, any pets in the home, and other pertinent items that might affect a particular Host-Guest matching. The SIGHT Coordinator is not required to serve as a SIGHT Host.
7. A local SIGHT Coordinator may enlist the volunteer efforts of SIGHT Hosts within a chapter, via publicizing SIGHT at local meetings, articles in the newsletter, mailings, etc. SIGHT Host names and pertinent information should be kept by the local SIGHT Coordinator for help as required. Some SIGHT Coordinators, as an example, may not wish to have Guests in their homes, and may secure one or more Hosts who will volunteer accommodations.

Advertising scheduling, billing, and other business matters pertaining to advertising shall be the responsibility of the Executive Director as Business Manager, who shall coordinate with the Internet Services Manager, as required.

EDITORIAL POLICIES

The Internet Services Manager must publish, on the AML Web site, such information or items required by the Bylaws or directed to be published by the AMC, and shall publish, if at all possible, the additional information or items suggested by or recommended by the Bylaws. In addition, high priority should be given to messages submitted by the Chairman, the Executive Director, or other AMC members, especially those messages deemed to be of general interest or value to the society or the members.

It shall not be a function of American Mensa's Internet Services to make public on the Internet detailed accounts of administrative, business, or operating activities, except where required by legal considerations or the Bylaws, or except if such details shall be judged to be of significant interest to the membership as a whole.

Insofar as possible, the management of American Mensa's Internet Services shall remain independent of and aloof from partisan Mensa politics, and aside from online forums and similar electronic media in which the free exchange of opinions are invited, should not publish partisan political material or debates other than official election material.

American Mensa's officers, staff and members may submit editorial or other opinions on any subject matter of his/her own choosing, but only in the specific areas of AML Internet Services where such opinions are permitted. Such editorial or other opinions are subject to review and possible expurgation by AMC, the Communications Officer, or their agents, according to individual AML Internet Services policies for that Internet medium. Disclaimers that the opinions expressed therein are not necessarily those of AMC, AML or of any other member shall be prominently displayed within that particular Internet medium's format.

The Internet Services Manager shall exercise care to keep the format, selection of continuing features, and type of material fresh and technologically up-to-date as appropriate and feasible. American Mensa's Internet Services serve a diverse audience, and its content should reflect that diversity in a constructive manner. The Internet Services Manager shall coordinate with the Communications Services Committee and other officers and committees to ensure that these goals are met.

ADVERTISING POLICY

The Executive Director as Business Manager shall adhere to the advertising policies established by the AMC. The display of any commercial logo on American Mensa's Internet Services, in any format, may be treated as advertising at the discretion of the Executive Director as Business Manager. For the purposes of reciprocal links and other promotional efforts, the Executive Director as Business Manager may waive billing on certain elements so defined as advertising.

The Executive Director as Business Manager, with the approval of the Communications Officer, the Development Officer and the Executive Committee, may adjust the rates for any forms of advertising on American Mensa's Internet Services.

Advertising solicitation, orders, scheduling, and billing shall be the responsibility of the Executive Director as Business Manager, who shall provide the Internet Services Manager with the necessary instructions and materials in proper time for inclusion online.

Advertising shall be accepted in keeping with the nature and format of American Mensa's Internet Services and within advertising policies established by the AMC. The Communications Officer, in consultation with the Development Officer and the Communications Services Committee, shall make recommendations to the AMC for changes and additions to the advertising policy as needed.

Advertisers who want "Personals", "Situations Wanted" or comparable advertising, when available, must be Mensa members in good standing. Other classifications, when available, may be used by Mensans and non-Mensans. Display advertising, including banner ads, is available to everyone.

Advertising ordered by an individual, or by an organization without an established credit record, shall require payment in advance of publication.

Paid political ads will not be accepted on American Mensa's Internet Services.

If, in the judgment of the Internet Services Manager or the Communications Officer, an advertisement submitted for publication is unacceptable, a copy of the advertisement and the reasons for deeming it not acceptable shall be sent to the Chairman, the Communications Officer, and the Executive Director as Business Manager as soon as possible for their evaluation and final decision.

Given the rapidly changing nature of the Internet, American Mensa's Internet Services Guidelines and Policies document shall be reviewed on an ongoing basis by the Internet Services Advisory Committee, and amended as needed by the AMC, to ensure that all items bear a timely relevance to current Internet technologies and practices.

---

Relevant guidelines and policies included in the current Actions Still In Effect (ASIEs) also apply to American Mensa's Internet Services, whether or not specifically noted here.

APPENDIX 11: AG Bid Guidelines

(see 2003-028)

Amended July 7, 2003

Dear Local Secretary:

We are delighted you have requested information about how to prepare an American Mensa Annual Gathering bid. The AG is a joint endeavor of AMC and one or more Local Groups. Enclosed are the materials you will need to prepare an Annual Gathering bid.

1. Guidelines for AG Site Selection showing how the AG Host Group is selected.
2. Information Needed for AG Bid Comparison which you must fill out as completely as possible.
3. Annual Gathering Outline which you will file quarterly (if your bid is selected), and then monthly for the six months leading up to your AG.
4. A list of sites of past AGs and Colloquia.
5. Additional information about gatherings we hope you will find helpful.

To be given full consideration, your bid package must contain

- Items two and three above, as completely filled out as possible, and
- Two copies of the Annual Gathering Host Agreement, filled out and signed, and
- Two copies of the proposed headquarters hotel AG bid contract.

Consult the National Office about the number of copies and due date (which is usually about one month before the AG where the site will be selected, three years before). This is the absolute deadline the above materials must be received. Earlier submission is strongly recommended.

Failure to submit the required written material for inclusion in the AMC mailing will seriously handicap your bid. (AMC members are wary of endorsing bids they have not had time to study.) Please plan early so your bid can get the full consideration it deserves.

Additional materials may be distributed at the discretion of the National Office staff, mailed directly by you, or brought to the presentation at the Annual Gathering.

Assistance of many sorts is available to help you prepare a better bid. Do not hesitate to call me or Travel and Convention Consultant Rose Lee B. Crutcher.

Sincerely,

Site Selection Committee Chair

From the American Mensa Bylaws:

An Annual Gathering of the Society shall be held between June 1st and July 15th of every year in a place to be picked by the American Mensa Committee, for the purpose of reporting to the members the state of the society and the activities of the society's committees during the previous year.

GUIDELINES FOR MENSA GATHERINGS

Mensa Gatherings - Annual, Regional, Theme, Colloquia, and Mini-Gatherings - are Mensa's most important activities, and have increased in number to over 70 per year. Considerable information and experience have accumulated, and will be given here for the benefit of future gathering committees. While the format for Annual Gatherings is well established, Regional and Theme Gatherings vary widely in character and program, and committees are free to exercise their own creativity and discretion.

Most gatherings, if carefully planned, are successful. Attendance varies from less than a hundred for small groups, to many hundreds for those large groups with a history of successful gatherings. When there are profits, they are often used for local scholarship awards. With over 70 gatherings a year, we may be reaching the saturation point, and groups should consider alternate years of holding joint Regional Gatherings with nearby groups, or alternating Regional and Theme Gatherings in succeeding years.

To insure that gatherings are separated in time, distance and subject, dates should be cleared with RVCs and the Membership Officer. Hosting a successful RG is prerequisite to hosting an Annual Gathering.

THE ANNUAL GATHERING: This program and timetable for AGs are now well established, and late June or early July are the usual dates. Members begin arriving early in the week, registration usually opens on Wednesday and the Gathering is underway. The number of meals offered is decided by the AG Committee, with speakers at most meals; complimentary breakfasts in Hospitality are standard. For the benefit of Local Group officers, workshops are held on all aspects of Mensa: newsletters, administration, proctoring, gatherings, finances, scholarships, etc. Other meetings are offered on subjects on interest to Mensans, and AGs have been known to have as many as 200 different programs. Hospitality is extremely important; members need a place to meet their friends and enjoy refreshments. A Friday evening dinner and informal dance are often held, and a more formal banquet and ball are scheduled for Saturday night. The Annual Meeting of American Mensa, Ltd. is held on Sunday morning, with brunch and farewell speeches as the final event. AGs have grown from a few hundred attendees to more than a thousand.

REGIONAL GATHERINGS: Most RGs tend to be miniature AGs, usually running from Friday afternoon to Sunday noon or occasionally to Monday noon on holiday weekends. Most RGs provide a meal package (one to three meals are customary), along with complimentary breakfasts and a well-stocked hospitality area. Talks, meetings, and contests, with perhaps a banquet and/or dance on Saturday night, usually make up the program.

THEME GATHERINGS: These are very similar in format to RGs but their content is different. In the case of a TG, a theme or subject is chosen and virtually all the activities are directly related to that theme. This provides the attendees with a concentrated exposure to material on that theme in a one-weekend time frame and a congenial setting. The first one ever held was built around the traveling Rameses II exhibit, while the second was all about theater. Any theme could be used for which a group feels it has local resources in the way of speakers, events, or attractions such as museums or other field trip sites to support the topic. Speakers need not be Mensans and may be paid or not as the Committee decides. Even a small group can hold a successful TG by drawing on the resources of its area. These are sometimes planned by SIGs.

COLLOQUIA: These are gatherings dealing with more serious topics such as Medical Ethics, Politics, Science and the Arts, etc. They have been held irregularly since 1982, and are jointly sponsored by MERF (the Mensa Education and Research Foundation) and American Mensa, Ltd., and a Local Group. Information on past colloquia is available for host groups to consider.

MINI-GATHERINGS: Many groups have staged low budget camp-outs or mini-gatherings, sometimes as a preliminary to planning a full-scale RG or TG. Usually a hotel is chosen in an area with a variety of activities available. A hospitality area is customarily provided as a meeting and departure spot for attendees. Whether there is any organized program of events or not is decided by the members in charge although MiniGs are usually relatively unstructured.

ADVANCE PLANNING: Forty months should be allowed for planning an Annual Gathering, six months to a year for a Regional or Theme Gathering, and at least six months for a Mini-Gathering. A Gathering Committee should include a small group of knowledgeable members: the Gatherings Committee, the Registrar, and a Program, Publicity, and Hospitality Chairs. All other assignments can be supervised by these members. Only one person should be authorized to deal with the hotel.

CONTRACTS: Usually only the LocSec can sign a contract binding the Local Group. No member should be authorized to do so without ExComm review. The National meeting consultant, National Office staff, your RVC or other experienced members are available to assist in contract negotiation and review. It is strongly recommended you use them before signing any contract. Registrar: The duties of the Registrar are: 1) receive and record all registrations; 2) turn over money to the Treasurer; 3) mail out confirmation letters; 4) prepare registration envelopes; 5) prepare a list of pre-registrants; and 6) supervise the Registration Desk during the gathering. The record keeping is much easier if a computer is used. Software for this purpose is available on the Mensa Forum, or from other gathering registrars.

TREASURER: The Treasurer should deposit all funds promptly in interest-bearing accounts, make all payments authorized by the Coordinator, and prepare a financial report. Since receipts of thousands of dollars may be involved, the selection of the Treasurer is of prime importance. Bonding should be seriously considered. Both the Gathering Coordinator and the Treasurer should be authorized to sign checks on the gathering account. All areas of the RG should have an established budget.

PRICING: Unless some group has agreed to subsidize the event, the gathering should be budgeted to at least comfortably "break even." Groups should establish their pricing policy including refund policy early. Many groups offer youth rates and day rates, and discounts to those registering early. Some charge extra for non-Mensa members, which is preferable to raising member rates.

Registration during the last few days and at the door should be higher to encourage early registration and accurate buying.

GATHERING COORDINATOR: The Gathering Coordinator's job is to organize and coordinate the work of the rest of the Gathering Committee, and to provide regular reports and updates on the progress of the gathering planning to the governing board of the sponsoring Local Group. The Coordinator must be responsible and reliable, good at working with people of all personalities, and be able to withstand a great deal of stress.

THE LOCAL GROUP'S ROLE: The Local Group has the ultimate responsibility for the success or failure of a gathering, since the group will reap the benefits of success or the results of failure. The Local Group, usually represented by its governing board, has the responsibility to appoint a competent Gathering Coordinator and Committee, to require regular reports and updates from that Committee, to assist the Committee in carrying out its duties, and to give direction to the Committee when requested or in case of emergency. The Local Group should clearly state at the outset of planning what the financial philosophy of the gathering will be, that is, whether the group will attempt to make a profit or not, and if so, how will the profits be spent. The Local Group should also instruct the Coordinator and the Committee about any local customs or rules they wish to have incorporated into the gathering.

BUDGET: As early as possible, draw up a tentative budget, and revise it as your costs and estimates become more accurate. Obtain financial reports from other gatherings as guidelines. Besides normal administrative expenses, the budget should include music, hospitality, breakfasts, and buffets, if scheduled.

DATES: Many Mensa groups customarily hold their gatherings on the same weekend each year. Any new gathering should select a date that will not conflict with other gatherings within driving distance that are already on the schedule. Dates must be approved by the RVC and cleared with the Membership Officer before an announcement can be carried in the Mensa Bulletin. RG, TG, and MiniG dates should not conflict with the AG dates unless geographically well separated.

SITE: In selecting the hotel, your negotiating position is best before your gathering is actually announced. Convention business is profitable, hotels and motels are competitive, and all prices are subject to negotiation. Consider all available sites, pointing out that Mensa is a prestigious society, and Mensans are excellent guests. A downtown location is fine, but not mandatory. You should obtain rooms at well below the rack rates, and with singles and doubles preferably at the same price. Meeting and hospitality rooms should be free, as well as one sleeping room for every 40 or 50 rooms sold by the hotel. Meals should be negotiated in the same manner, arriving at attractive menus at reasonable prices. Make sure that permission to serve your own food and drinks in the Hospitality areas/suites is included in the contract. Finally, get this all in writing, drafting the agreement yourself if necessary.

CHECKLIST FOR HOTEL FACILITIES:

1. Can the banquet room seat the anticipated number of guests?
2. Will the meeting rooms together accommodate the total attendance?
3. Is the registration space adequate and well located?
4. Will the hospitality space handle, without crowding, your total attendance?
5. Can you serve your own wine, soft drinks, and food in the hospitality area/suites?
6. Are the meeting rooms and guestrooms all in one part of the hotel, for convenience and so as not to disturb other guests?
7. Will the rooms reservations be made directly with the hotel, and receive Mensa rates? Be sure the hotel will offer the same rates to those arriving early or remaining after the gathering. Most hotels will furnish reservation cards if needed.
8. Does the hotel understand that only one person (or at most two) will be authorized to sign for charges to the master account, and that no bills will be paid without the authorization signature? Individuals should be billed separately.
9. Do you have a written agreement with the hotel for everything?

PUBLICITY: As soon as the dates and site are approved, this information should appear, in the Mensa Bulletin. When registration, meals, and room costs are set, the original announcement can be updated. Announcements can be up to 300 characters for 5 insertions. Have an artist member prepare a flier with registration and hotel reservation forms. A form 6" wide will fit most publications and should be distributed to other groups approximately 90 days before the gathering. Have a member with access to CompuServe (and other electronic forums and bulletin boards) post a brief announcement online including the Registrar's address. For really large gatherings, you may want to consider purchasing advertising space in Mensa Bulletin. Don't forget regular articles in the local newsletter in the month leading up to the event. Copies of a sheet of ads about your RG can be sent to the National Office for inclusion in regular mailings.

LOCAL MEDIA: Press releases should be sent to local newspapers and radio/TV stations, and visiting Mensa dignitaries and special guest speakers should be booked for interviews. One advantage of gatherings is that they provide publicity that will attract new members. Phone in talk shows are excellent also.

MENSA TESTING: Some groups use the PR for a gathering to hold a big testing session. To do so requires an appropriate quiet testing room and several available proctors. Be sure to order extra testing supplies well in advance.

RG PROGRAMMING: While some RGs have a general theme, most prefer speakers and meetings on a variety of subjects. Mensans expect programs to be entertaining and informative, and programs on psychology, sociology, and matters of topical interest are popular. Speakers can be selected from local authorities, from college and university faculties, and from the attendees themselves. AMC members are usually interesting. Set a time limit for each talk, 30 to 40 minutes followed by a question period. Programs over one hour in length are considered unusually long. Speakers at meal function generally talk for 20 to 30 minutes. Speakers are often given their registration and luncheon in lieu of an honorarium.

CHILDREN/YOUNG M'S: Some gatherings discourage children, others have a full program for them, and many have a meeting room or partial program. You should decide in advance what your policy is and state it clearly in advertising. If children are welcome, state clearly what parental supervision is expected. Adults only activities (if any), should be clearly indicated in the printed program.

TG PROGRAMMING: A TG does have a theme, and all speakers should be a part of that overall theme. Within the theme chosen, try to offer a variety of sub-topics so that an attendee who is a novice in the area of the theme will be able to get a one weekend overview of the subject, but include programs of substance so that an attendee experienced in the field won't feel the time is completely wasted. It's a fine line between the two, but it can be done. It may help to have an outside event, such as a special museum exhibit or performance or other "field trip" of some sort to serve as a centerpiece of the presentations and as a common experience for all attendees. The theme can almost anything for which the Local Group feels it can line up sufficient excellent speakers, e.g. archeology, astronomy, ballet, basket weaving, computers, dance, earthquakes, education, etc.

OTHER EVENTS: Game rooms are popular. Many gatherings have smoking and non-smoking rooms. Icebreaker games are common on Friday evenings to acquaint attendees with each other. Many gatherings feature costume parties and/or parties. Some schedule special events in the hospitality areas, often with special foods served. Pool and hot-tub parties are popular. Many RGs feature a casino-night and/or an auction for prizes using "Mensa bucks" for money. In recent years it has become popular to hold an auction or other fundraiser to benefit MERF. (Any money from such a fundraiser should be clearly distinguished from the gathering revenues, and transferred to MERF as soon as possible.) Mensa bowl and other contests (scrabble, hearts, bridge, chess, etc.) are always popular. There is often a "Meet the RVC" session. Joke offs and talent shows are common events. Check other RG ads or programs for ideas.

MEAL FUNCTIONS: Mensans enjoy good food, and the menu(s) should be carefully selected. The usual 3-meal package includes lunch and dinner (often a banquet meal) on Saturday, and a Sunday brunch. The Saturday lunch is an excellent time for a speaker but many groups are eliminating lunch due to low ticket sales. The Sunday brunch is usually devoted to "wrap up" activities such as awards, announcements, and farewells. Saturday dinner is party time, although at a TG it can be the preliminary to a special event such as a theater visit or museum visit.

The preferred seating arrangement is at tables of 6 to 10 people with separate areas for smokers and non-smokers, if smoking is allowed at all. Head tables are optional, although less popular recently. It is usually best to have all meals on the premises, and buffet meals are acceptable and sometimes less costly. If possible, have the tables cleared before any program begins and have extra chairs available for those who have not bought meal tickets but wish to hear the speaker. Be sure to provide a podium and microphone and any other audio/visual equipment required. To set the price for the meal, figure all costs (including tax and tip) and round off to the next highest dollar.

HOSPITALITY: Nothing is more important to a gathering than a comfortable and well-stocked hospitality area. Rooms for smokers and non-smokers are customary. Soft drinks (diet and regular with some non-caffeine), beer and wine are furnished plus snacks which could include cheese and crackers, chips and dips, veggie trays, fruit, candy, cookies, ice cream, and local specialties. Groups try to excel in the variety and quality of their hospitality fare.

Many gatherings offer a light buffet in the hospitality area Friday night so that the attendee will be present for the evening programs; this is especially true at TGs where Friday evening is a good time for a "Keynote" speaker. Be sure to state clearly in advance registration information if there will be Friday dinner and the hours it will be served. Complimentary light (or continental) breakfasts in the hospitality area are standard on Saturday and Sunday mornings and sometimes for other times.

NAME TAGS: The main requirement is that the names should be presented in large, clear, and easy to read letters. The standard size is 3.5 by 2.25" which usually allows plenty of room for the name plus a distinctive logo for the particular gathering. If using a paper tag in a plastic sleeve or case, provide tape or a stapler so that the tag will not fall out. Nametags also often include ribbons to identify committee members, VIPs, speakers, etc. and space for "hugging" and/or SIG stickers.

PRINTED PROGRAM: Prepare and distribute to attendees a program with schedule of events, event and/or speaker descriptions, directions to meeting and other event rooms, and all other information that may be needed by attendees. If the program is an extensive one, consider providing a one page summary that can fit in a pocket or purse.

REGISTRATION DESK: This is the first point of contact the attendee has with the host group, and as such the importance of a well planned, prompt, and courteous Registration Desk and Staff cannot be over-emphasized. Some recommendations: 1) a convenient, visible Registration Desk staffed from Friday afternoon to 10 pm and one hour before programs begin until 5 or 6 pm on Saturday; 2) registration envelopes prepared in advance containing name tag, meal and/or event tickets, programs, original registration materials, and noting any monies still due; 3) have extra members around to welcome guests personally; 4) have a list of pre-registrants available and have new arrivals sign in or be checked off; 5) after registration is closed, leave word where the Registrar can be found; and 6) have extra meal tickets available and money to make change.

Some groups include other "goodies" in the registration packets ranging from icebreaker games and other contests to brochures and maps about the locality to souvenir items. Be sure to have enough of these items to cover last minute or walk-in registrants.

VOLUNTEERS: The key to a successful gathering is many heads and hands. Experienced workers should be supervising and teaching others, not trying to "do it all themselves." Volunteer recruitment should begin as soon as planning starts. General chairs are named first. They in turn find sub-chairs or shift coordinators. Actual workers are often recruited for 1-2 hour time slots. Many groups offer buttons, ribbons or prize drawings from volunteer names as incentives. The gathering is an excellent way to activate new members. ("Can you help us out in hospitality for 2 hours Friday night? We'll show you how.") The more new volunteers involved, the better.

SECURITY: Gatherings are for Mensa members and their personal guests; uninvited guests should not be admitted, except to a meeting open to the public. Discourage freeloading; no one should be admitted to a meeting or hospitality area unless wearing a nametag. If there is a policy on replacement of lost nametags, include that information in the gathering program. Meeting rooms and hospitality areas should not be used for sleeping accommodations. If the gathering is very large, consider appointing several members specifically to security duty.

ODDS AND ENDS:

1. Have a bulletin board and message center near the Registration Desk.
2. Provide an information desk near Registration for handouts, sign-up sheets, and to display various newsletters and fliers for other gatherings.
3. In case of emergencies, know where to reach a doctor and a dentist.
4. Be able to prepare signs "spur of the moment" when needed.
5. Remember to have prizes for winners of any contest.
6. Make provisions for transportation for air travelers arriving by commercial or private planes as well as those arriving by train or bus.
7. Have a photographer take candid shots for possible use in the Mensa Bulletin or local newsletter.

SUMMARY: While these guidelines should cover the major aspects of a gathering, experience attending gatherings held by your own or other groups is also valuable. Most groups and past Coordinators of gatherings are very willing to share their expertise when asked. Every gathering should have its own distinctive character with its own special attractions. Gatherings can have many advantages for the Local Group: their publicity brings new members, the profits can be used for scholarships or other Local Group projects, new members can become part of "the team", they instill a spirit of pride and cooperation in the group, and have initiated many lasting friendships with Mensa.

ANNUAL GATHERING HOST CONTRACT

This contract is entered into by and between American Mensa, Ltd. ("AML") and _____ (local group), which has been designated by the American Mensa Committee ("AMC") to serve as the Host Group for the _____ Annual Gathering ("AG") of AML. The parties acknowledge their awareness of, and agreement to, the following conditions, responsibilities, and requirements.

1. In consideration of the AMC awarding to the Host Group the exclusive right to host the _____ AG, the Host Group promises to perform its obligations under this contract and to produce the AG in conformity with its bid and/or supplementary agreements approved by the AMC (the "Plan"). Further, the Host Group agrees to comply with those minimum standards set out in Appendix A hereto. By signing this contract, the Host Group acknowledges that it fully understands what is required of it and that it will abide by the provisions of this contract and Appendix A. The Host Group further acknowledges that it will make every effort to comply with any changes to the minimum standards that occur between the effective date of this contract and the AG.
2. By executing this contract, the Host Group attests generally to the accuracy of its bid to host the AG, and specifically to the availability and price of accommodations at the designated hotel, provisions for early arrivals and late departures, alternative accommodations, meal prices, and main program features set forth in its bid and/or supplementary communications.
3. The Host Group may elect to manage the AG through a semi-autonomous AG Committee that it selects. If the Host Group so elects, then the Host Group may delegate to such AG Committee such authority as it deems appropriate. The Host Group may not, however, delegate or assign its responsibilities to the AMC under this contract to any other entity, including to the AG Committee. The Host Group remains responsible for the performance of its duties under this contract regardless of whether an AG Committee is appointed.
4. Prior to signing any contract regarding facilities or meal functions, the Host Group shall forward a clear and complete copy of such contract to the AML National Office. Within twenty-one (21) days after receipt of same by the National Office, the AMC (or its designate) shall review the hotel contract and shall advise the Host Group of its opinion concerning such contract. The Host Group agrees to co-operate with the National Office and the AMC in attempting to negotiate with hotels and vendors terms requested by the National Office or the AMC following review of the draft contract.
5. The AMC Chairman is to be an official signatory on the AG Hotel Contract, in addition to the AG Chair. The AMC Chairman or the Executive Director must also be a signatory on any contract which exceeds $5000.
6. If the Host Group or AG Committee wishes to apply for credit with a hotel, such application must be approved and signed by the AMC Chairman or the Executive Director, as well as the Host Group or AG Committee Chair, and/or the Convention and Travel Consultant if applicable.
7. Although the AG is a joint venture between the AMC and the Host Group for the benefit of all the members of AML, the AMC ultimately bears the responsibility for the production of an AG. Therefore, the AMC must be kept informed of the progress being made by the Host Group and/or AG Committee with respect to preparations for the AG. The Host Group or AG Committee shall provide progress reports to the designated AMC Liaison. If the AG preparations are proceeding according to the Plan, the AMC will generally not actively participate in such preparations (except as provided in the minimum standards). Should any matters arise that have the potential to seriously affect the AG, the Host Group shall promptly notify the AMC of same. The Host Group or AG Committee, as applicable, must consult with the AMC prior to making any material changes to the Plan.
  - (a) By way of illustration, but not limitation, the following are examples of matters that could seriously affect an AG and which must be promptly reported to the AMC: any contract or hotel related problems, substantial cost escalation, major program changes, need to change facilities, need to limit attendance (either overall or at specific events), discord within the Host Group or its AG Committee, changes in the management of the Host Group or its AG Committee, advance registrations falling short of projections, and/or a substantial projected net financial loss.
  - (b) In the event that it appears to the AMC that the Host Group (or AG Committee) is or may be unable to perform its obligations hereunder, then the AMC shall notify the Host Group of the AMC's concerns and shall give the Host Group a reasonable amount of time to take corrective action. In the event that the Host Group is unable or unwilling to effect corrective action, then, in the sole judgment of the AMC, the AMC shall have the right and obligation to (i) assume the management of the AG; and/or (ii) revoke its award to the Host Group, and/or (iii) designate another local group(s) to host the AG.
8. AML shall provide complimentary advertising space to the AG in the Mensa Bulletin during the twelve months preceding the AG, as follows: in January and February issues, one half page each; and in March, April/ May and June issues, one full page each, and in the March issue, the front cover. The camera-ready art is to be developed and produced by the AG Committee and submitted to the Managing Editor for approval. The Managing Editor has the right to reject the material if it is not provided in a format or quality consistent with the Bulletin.

9. AML will, upon request, after this contract becomes effective, lend to the Host Group up to $1000 as seed money. The Host Group shall repay the seed money no later than 60 days prior to the start of the AG.
  10. The Host Group (or the AG Committee, if applicable) shall appoint a Registrar and a Treasurer. The Registrar shall acknowledge all monies received and all requests for information or refunds within two weeks of receipt of same. The Registrar and the Treasurer must be either bonded or covered by insurance supplied by the Host Group. Costs for either option shall be borne by the Host Group.
  11. AG monies shall be kept separate from all other funds, including local group funds. Each AG bank account shall have at least one more person authorized to sign than is required to issue checks or otherwise authorize withdrawals. The AMC Chairman shall be an authorized signatory on all AG bank accounts. Copies of all statements, deposit receipts, and checks or withdrawal receipts for the AG bank account(s) shall be provided to the AMC upon request.
  12. The National Office offers to provide various services for the AG at no cost to the AG or the Host Group, as detailed on Appendix B, attached hereto. Among these services is processing of pre-event registrations. It is recommended, though not required, that the Host Group take advantage of at least the processing of registrations through the National Office. Please see Appendix B, Services Offered by the National Office for Annual Gatherings, for further information.
  13. The Host Group shall furnish to the AMC reports in accordance with the provisions set forth in the Minimum Standards (Appendix A hereto). In addition, the Host Group shall furnish to the AMC its final budget, and its tentative program, including dates, times, and room assignments for all scheduled events, no later than eight weeks prior to the AG.
  14. The Host Group (or AG Committee, if applicable) shall submit quarterly reports to the AMC, commencing with the date this contract is effective, and continuing until six months before the AG. Such reports shall be submitted through the designated liaison, according to the schedule to be set by the AMC Chairman. The Host Group (or AG Committee, if applicable) shall submit monthly reports to the AMC, commencing six months before the AG and continuing until the closing of the AG's books.
  15. Within 45 days after the conclusion of the AG, the Host Group (or its AMC liaison) shall prepare and furnish to the AMC an interim account of all monies received and disbursed in conjunction with the AG. Within 90 days after the conclusion of the AG, the Host Group shall prepare and furnish to the AMC a complete and accurate account of all moneys received and disbursed in conjunction with the AG. In the event that all financial transactions have not been concluded by the end of the 90-day period, the Host Group (or its AMC liaison) shall include in its account reasonable estimates of all uncertain amounts and shall prepare and furnish such additional accounting(s) as appropriate to the circumstances. The AG books shall be closed within 120 days from the conclusion of the AG, at which time the Host Group shall present a financial report to the AMC. The AMC shall have the right and obligation to audit all accounts and reports described in this paragraph 15. If the accounts and reports described in this paragraph are not furnished to the AMC in a timely manner, AML may withhold the Host Group's local group subsidy until such time as all required accounts and reports have been submitted.
  16. Any monies payable to AML or to the Mensa Education and Research Foundation (MERF) shall be disbursed to AML or MERF within 120 days after the conclusion of the AG.
  17. With respect to profits earned from the AG, an amount of surplus equal to 100 times the annual regular individual membership dues of AML (as of the effective date of this contract) will go to the Host Group, and the remainder will go to AML. If the AMC, for any reasonable cause, must assume management of the AG, either prior to or during the AG, the Host Group shall be entitled to retain only its expenses incurred, unless a greater amount is negotiated between the Host Group and the AMC.
  18. The Host Group (or AG Committee, if applicable) shall submit a final report on non-financial aspects of the AG to the AMC within 120 days of the conclusion of the AG.
  19. This contract shall be binding upon AML, the Host Group, and the successors of each. This contract may not be assigned by a Host Group or AG Committee without the express written consent of the AMC Chairman.
  20. This contract shall become effective only when signed and dated by the Local Secretary of the Host Group, the AG Chair, and the AMC Chairman, with the date of the last signature to control.

4. The Host Group must ensure that AG Hospitality conforms to the highest standards of food preparation and handling. If the hotel is not providing refrigeration and /or kitchen space, a detailed plan for hospitality must be submitted by the Host Group or its AG Committee to the AMC. Volunteers serving food must be provided with written guidelines concerning food handling and safety, and the Host Group is responsible for ensuring that such guidelines are followed. It is recommended that key food preparation and handling personnel be trained or certified in safe food handling techniques. In the event that the Host Group plans to serve any food that is not pre-packaged, or which requires either chilling/holding below 40°F or heating/holding above 140°F, the Host Group must ensure that at least one individual on duty in Hospitality during the times when such food shall be served is trained or certified in safe food handling.
5. If possible, the Hospitality area shall remain open 24 hours a day for the duration of the AG. Sectional or other closings may be permitted for cleaning.
6. Every effort should be made to provide a smoking hospitality room if it is allowed by the hotel and the municipality. Adequate ventilation must be provided so that the smoke does not flow into other areas. All AG promotional materials shall indicate that smoking hospitality will be outdoors if that is the case.

15. AG programs should be tentatively scheduled as early as possible, and in no event later than 90 days prior to the AG. Program information shall be communicated to registrants and AML members (through AML publications, registration acknowledgements, the AML website, and other means, so that attendees may plan their travel agendas. (Awards are very important to those nominated and they will want to be there.) Public relations efforts may also be tied to programming, so the National Office must be kept informed of the AG schedule at all times. The National Office will also inform the AG Committee of anticipated public relations events.
16. The National Office will coordinate with the Host Group on PR and media efforts. National Office staff will be ultimately responsible for all media contacts, and will designate official spokespersons for AML, in cooperation with the Host Group. 23. The ABM shall be scheduled at a time and date set by the AMC Chairman. This schedule will be given to the Host Group at least 10 months prior to the AG. Every effort must be made to schedule this meeting without any conflicting events to allow members to attend this meeting.

25. The National Office will set up separate direct billing arrangements with the hotel and will pay directly for sleeping rooms for AMC and staff members, AMC AV expenses, and any other special order items incurred by the AMC.
26. A complete electronic data base of registrants, including registrants' membership numbers, shall be provided to the National Office 60 days, 30 days, and then again five days prior to the first day of the AG.
27. The Host Group should plan to make available a place for various official groups to have display tables, if allowable under the hotel contract, for no or minimal charge. These include the next year's AG, Colloquium, and MindGames host committees and MERF. Representatives from these groups should contact the Host Group as early as possible during the AG planning process.

MANAGEMENT

The line of authority for decisions pertinent to the Mensa Bulletin is, in descending order, as follows: the AMC acting as a body, the Chairman, the Communications Officer, the Managing Editor of the Bulletin, Associate Editors, Art Directors, and other Bulletin staff members as determined and authorized by the Bulletin Managing Editor. The Executive Director of American Mensa, Ltd. may be empowered by the Chairman to act with the authority of the Chairman in matters concerning the Bulletin.

The Communications Officer is the designated publisher's spokesperson for the Mensa Bulletin, and shall provide the Bulletin Managing Editor with clear, well-defined, and understandable policies, directions, and guidelines. The Communications Officer shall report to the AMC regarding the operation and functioning of the Mensa Bulletin.

The Managing Editor of the Mensa Bulletin shall have full authority and responsibility for meeting publication schedules, for selection of material, for appearance and layout, and for the actual operation of the publication.

The Managing Editor of the Mensa Bulletin, along with the Communications Officer, shall have executive authority for his/her volunteer assistants (e.g. associate editors, columnists, etc.), with the right to appoint or relieve, and to give such directions and make such decisions as are required.

In the event of an irreconcilable difference of opinion between the Managing Editor and a member of his/her staff, or between the Managing Editor and a contributor, or between the Managing Editor and a reader, the Managing Editor shall request a ruling from the Communications Officer.

Any dispute between the Managing Editor and an advertiser, or any advertiser complaint of other than a superficial nature, shall be referred to either the Communications Officer or the Business Manager for resolution. This is to support the Managing Editor in making decisions based on editorial policy rather than commercial pressure.

In the event of an unresolved difference between the Managing Editor and the Communications Officer, either party may appeal to either the Chairman or the AMC for resolution.

Advertising scheduling, billing, and other business matters pertaining to advertising shall be the responsibility of the Business Manager, who shall coordinate with the Managing Editor as required.

EDITORIAL POLICIES

The Managing Editor must publish such information or items required by the Bylaws or directed to be published by the AMC, and shall publish, if at all possible, the additional information or items suggested by or recommended by the Bylaws. In addition, high priority should be given to messages submitted by the Chairman, the Executive Director, the Treasurer, or other AMC members, especially those messages deemed to be of general interest or value to the society or the members. If the Managing Editor finds such submissions require cutting or editing, he/she should work directly with the contributor to achieve a satisfactory result.

It shall not be a function of the Mensa Bulletin to publish detailed accounts of administrative, business, or operating activities, except where required by legal considerations or the Bylaws, or except if such details shall be judged to be of significant interest to the membership as a whole.

Insofar as possible, the Mensa Bulletin shall remain independent of and aloof from partisan Mensa politics, and should not publish partisan political material or debates other than official election material.

The Managing Editor shall have the right to publish editorial opinion on any subject matter of his/her own choosing, unless specifically directed otherwise.

The Managing Editor shall include in the Mensa Bulletin as much member-submitted material as possible, provided that it meets his/her standards of quality and reader interest. However, publication in the Mensa Bulletin is not restricted to items submitted by, or authored by, Mensa members. The Managing Editor may, at his/her discretion, publish items authored by non-members, or from non-Mensa sources, if the items are considered to be of sufficient interest or value to the readers.

Publication of debate between and among members on items of general interest is encouraged. The Managing Editor must skillfully apply judgment to prevent such exchanges from becoming monotonous, from engaging in personal attack, and from being non-constructive.

The Managing Editor shall exercise care to keep the format, selection of continuing features, and type of material from becoming stagnant. The Bulletin serves a diverse audience, and its content should reflect that diversity in a constructive manner.

ADVERTISING POLICY

Advertising in the Mensa Bulletin is subject to the acceptance policies established by the AMC or as determined by the Communications Officer. However, all advertising materials and copy are subject to approval or rejection by the Managing Editor.

The Communications Officer, in consultation with the Managing Editor and Business Manager of the Mensa Bulletin and with the approval of the Executive Committee, may adjust the rates for display and classified advertising in the Mensa Bulletin.

Advertising solicitation, orders, scheduling, and billing shall be the responsibility of the Business Manager, who shall provide the Managing Editor with the necessary instructions and materials in proper time for publication.

Advertising shall be accepted on a space-available basis. Advertisers for "Personals", "Situations Wanted", and box numbers must be Mensa members in good standing. Other classifications are available to non-Ms, as are display advertisements.

Advertising ordered by an individual, or by an organization without an established credit record, shall require payment in advance of publication.

Classified ads that specify a Bulletin box number or a blind address will be accepted only from bona fide Mensa members.

Paid political ads will not be accepted in the Mensa Bulletin for two reasons: (1) that the amount of money a candidate may be able to spend on ads should not be a criterion for election; (2) that all candidates' statements and biographical sketches shall be published in the Mensa Bulletin free of charge, the length and timing to be determined by the Election Committee.

If, in the judgment of the Managing Editor, the Business Manager, or the Communications Officer, an advertisement submitted for publication is unacceptable, a copy of the advertisement and the reasons for deeming it not acceptable shall be sent to the Chairman, the Communications Officer, the Business Manager, and the Managing Editor as soon as possible.

*****

Relevant guidelines and policies included in the current ASIEs also apply to the Mensa Bulletin, whether or not specifically noted here.

APPENDIX 13: Minimum Standard Bylaws
Requirements for Local Groups of American Mensa Ltd.:

(see 2000-033, and 2002-179)

As amended 14-Dec-2002

The purpose of standardized local group bylaws is to prevent recurring conflicts and problems in local group administration. In addition, bylaws are designed to protect the fundamental interests of all members and Mensa.

Local groups have an immense degree of freedom in how they express these Minimum Standards, and any other concepts they wish to incorporate (as long as they do not conflict with any Minimum Standards). Except for the Name and Logo clause (which is also required of American Mensa by the owners) and correct terminology, bylaws are reviewed primarily for content, rather than style.

1. DEFINITION OF THE LOCAL GROUP: The following is required:
  - A. A statement of the name of the local group and that it is a local group of American Mensa, Ltd. (AML), and is subject to the Constitution of Mensa, the Bylaws of American Mensa, Ltd., and the resolutions adopted by the American Mensa Committee (AMC).
2. MEMBERSHIP: The following is required:
  - A. A statement that membership in the local group shall be open to all members of American Mensa, Ltd. in good standing in the geographic area assigned to the local group by the American Mensa Committee, or as otherwise assigned by American Mensa, Ltd.
  - B. A statement that Mensa members in good standing who are not also members of the local group are welcome to participate in the social activities of the local group at the discretion of the host or hostess. The National Ombudsman, his surrogate, and members of the American Mensa Committee shall be permitted to participate in the business affairs of the local group in the discharge of their official duties.
  - C. A statement that _____ Mensa shall observe the preferences of members for data suppression and publication, as filed with AML, when publishing a local group roster or membership directory/register.
3. OFFICERS AND DUTIES: The following is required:
  - A. A description of the governing body of the local group, and of its composition and authority.
  - B. A statement that all officers, whether elected or appointed, must be current members in good standing of American Mensa, Ltd., and of the local group. An officer is defined as any person who is given a title with specific responsibilities.
  - C. No more than one-half of the voting positions on the governing body may be appointed positions; however there may be as many non-voting appointed positions as desired. Appointed officers with voting rights on the governing body must be specified in the local group bylaws.
  - D. A listing of the elected officers of the group, of which there must be a minimum of three, with a defined order of succession or other means of immediately and automatically filling a vacancy in the position of Local Secretary. A replacement for an elected officer is considered to be an elected officer whose term of office ends with the next regular elections.

- E. A listing of the duties of elected and appointed positions, their term of office, and how vacancies shall be filled. The term of office of appointed officers and committees may not exceed the term of office of the officer or governing body appointing them, except that those officers (such as mediators) or committees (such as RG) whose functions extend past the end of the current term of office may remain in office, but are subject to removal by the succeeding officer or governing body which would otherwise appoint them.
  - (i) The chief executive officer of a local group may be titled Local Secretary, President, or Chairman, whichever the group prefers, however no local group may have, as separate officers, more than one of the three. He or she shall be charged with being the chief point of contact between AML and the local group. By agreeing to be LocSec, the LocSec agrees to pass along information to and from the group in a timely fashion. He or she shall be charged with notifying AML (through the national office) and the Regional Vice Chairman for the local group within two weeks of the results of elections, and of changes in the officers of the local group.
  - (ii) The duties of the Treasurer must include providing the LocSec (or designee, who must also be a voting member of the governing body) original statements from banks and any other institutions where the group's money is deposited, at least quarterly. All accounts shall be separate accounts in the name of the group, and shall have more than one signatory so that funds can be accessed in the temporary absence of the treasurer. The Treasurer shall also maintain a listing of all equipment owned by the local group.
  - (iii) The position of Past Local Secretary, if such an office exists, may only be filled by the immediate past Local Secretary, and is considered to be an elective position.
- F. A statement that elected members of the governing body may be removed from office by means of a recall election, ballots for which must be either an insert to, or part of, the local newsletter, or ballots that are mailed separately to all members of the local group.
- G. A provision stating any voting officer may be removed from office for nonattendance at business meetings.

- I. A statement of how appointed officers may be removed from office.
- J. A statement that all officers, elected or appointed, shall turn over all files, office equipment and materials pertaining to their offices to either their successor(s), to the current Local Secretary, or to another member of the governing body no later than four weeks after leaving office.

4. PUBLICATION OF FINANCIAL REPORT: The following is required:

- A. A statement requiring that a financial report be published in the local group newsletter not less than twice each year (at approximate six-month intervals), and that the report shall contain schedules of income, expenses and balances for all funds under the control of the local group, including RG, scholarship, and other special funds.
- B. A provision requiring an annual financial review, conducted during the month the group's elected officers normally take office in election years. This review shall be conducted by someone who was not involved in the issuing or collecting of money during the review period, and shall include viewing actual statements from banks and any other institutions where the group's money is deposited.

5. MEETINGS:

- A. The requirements for the holding of regular meetings of the governing body, and that notice shall be sent to all members, usually by publishing in the local group newsletter.
- B. The requirements for the calling of special business meetings of the governing body by either the Local Secretary, the governing body, or by no more than 10% of the membership of the local group, the agenda for which may include only that business for which the meeting is being called.
- C. (Recommended but not required) All business meetings of _____ Mensa, and the Executive Committee, shall be held within the geographical limits of the group as assigned by the AMC.

6. ELECTION PROCEDURES: A clear and complete stipulation of election procedures and methods is required, including the following:

- A. Each local group of American Mensa, Ltd. is required to hold an election of its governing body at least every two years. When an election is held, ballots must be mailed to all members of the local group that are either an insert to, or part of, the local newsletter, or that are mailed separately. There must be provisions which allow full participation by mail for all members at all steps including runoff elections. Tie-breaking by the flip of a coin or similar random process is allowed, a run-off in person is not.
- B. The method(s) and time frame for nominating officers.
- C. A designation of responsibilities for the receipt and tallying of ballots, date of the election, and the method of certifying the results.
- D. A statement that neither the election nor the nominating committee shall contain elected members of the governing body or candidates for elective office in the election.

7. AMENDMENTS TO THE BYLAWS: The following is required:

- A. A statement as to how the bylaws can be amended, and that proposed amendments shall be submitted to, and approved for balloting by, the American Mensa Committee before balloting by the local group membership. Following such AMC approval, proposed amendments shall be sent to all members of the local group either as an insert in, or as a part of, the local newsletter, or as a separate mailing.
- B. That a ballot shall be mailed to each members of the local group as an insert in, or as part of, the local newsletter or as a separate mailing.

- C. A statement that there must be a minimum of 90 days between the date of publication of the proposed amendments and the deadline for receipt of ballots.
- D. A statement that local group bylaws or bylaw amendments are not effective until approved by the local group membership, and given final approval by the American Mensa Committee after filing of revised bylaws with the Bylaws Committee. After filing of the amended bylaws with the Bylaws Committee after the membership has voted, the Bylaws Committee will notify _____ Mensa of the effective date of the bylaws as amended.

8. MENSA NAME AND LOGO: The following clause is required verbatim, with the blanks filled in with the name of the local group or corporation:

American Mensa, Ltd. (AML) has granted a royalty free, nonexclusive license to _____ for the use of the mark "Mensa" and a logo, consisting of a globe over a stylized "M" within a border, in connection with the non-commercial uses of _____. AML retains full ownership of the mark and logo and all statutory and common law rights in the mark and logo.

9. PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY: The following is suggested, but is not required:

A statement naming a standard parliamentary authority. (Demeters, Roberts, etc, but should be specific as to the version or issue date of the book. You may say "latest edition").

CLARIFICATIONS

1. To be eligible to receive the local group dues allotment, each local group must have AMC-approved bylaws, must publish a calendar of activities at least quarterly, and must have both a membership meeting and a business meeting at least quarterly. A membership meeting is defined as any organized activity for the members.
2. A group wishing to change its name must do so through the bylaws amendment procedure. Guidelines for changes in local group names are available from the National Office. For an equivalent reason, local groups are encouraged to *not* include the name of their newsletter in their bylaws.
3. The requirements of the Minimum Standard Bylaws are included in every local group's bylaws whether explicitly stated or not. In other words, the minimum requirements are enforceable even if they are not explicitly contained in a group's bylaws. It is, of course, less confusing when the guidelines are contained in one, continuous document. If in doubt about any Minimum Standard, contact the Bylaws Committee Chair or your RVC for clarification.
4. The Bylaws Committee does not have the authority to grant any waivers from these Minimum Standards, as they are resolutions adopted by the AMC. Therefore, whenever a local group amends its bylaws, those bylaws must be brought up to date with current Minimum Standards before AMC approval may be given.

5. A local group proposing amendments to its bylaws must submit the proposed amendments to the AMC for approval before publication of the proposed changes to its membership. The only method to change a group's bylaws is to follow the procedure contained in the Minimum Standards above. If proposed changes are published before AMC approval, they may need to be reprinted if there are changes. It is recommended that the RVC be consulted during this process; he or she will be included in the review committee.

6. To obtain AMC approval, send proposed bylaws or amendments (along with the current bylaws) to either the Chairman of the AMC Bylaws Committee, or to the National office, where they will be distributed to the members of the AMC Bylaws Committee. You will hear from the committee chairman upon his/her receipt of the bylaws, and should receive either approval to submit the bylaws to the membership or suggestions for revisions, within 60 days. Note that the AMC Bylaws Committee is authorized to approve your bylaws on behalf of the AMC.

Once the Bylaws Committee has approved your bylaws or amendments, you should then submit them to your local membership for ratification. There is no such thing as "automatic" or "local only" approval for bylaw changes. The bylaws or amendments only become effective after approval to ballot by the AMC (the Bylaws Committee), approval by your own membership, AND final approval by the Bylaws Committee after filing a copy of the new bylaws with AML. The approval to ballot will expire 1 year from the date of issue.

7. Local Groups may wish to specify American Mensa, Ltd. as "AML", and the American Mensa Committee as the "AMC" provided that the bylaws indicate that AML and AMC are abbreviations (Herein referred to as AML, for example).

8. Although the term "governing body" is used herein, local groups may use the terms "Board of Directors", "Executive Committee", or similar designation if so desired.

9. Officers or committees which are to continue in office beyond the term of the governing body must be specified in the bylaws.

10. It is recommended that three consecutive unexcused absences constitute cause for removal from office.

11. The mediator(s) and arbitrator(s) may be the same or distinct persons, and may be the same or distinct from other officers. If distinct persons, the method of selection need not be the same for the two.

12. Failure to turn over the files, equipment and other materials of office at the end of one's term may be cause for action by the Society.

13. Elections: Some groups have staggered two years terms, with one-half of the officers being elected each year.

14. Elections: It is suggested that there be a deadline for any challenges to the election, plus the statement that any actions by the governing body in the meantime would not be affected by the outcome of any such challenge. It is strongly suggested you specify the actual beginning date of the term of new officers.

15. The 90 day requirement between first publication of the amendment(s) and the ballot deadline is intended to provide time for study, comment and dialog.

16. Proctors are appointed by American Mensa, Ltd. following the recommendation of them by the Local Secretary or RVC. Local Group bylaws may specify the position of "Proctor Coordinator" or "Testing Coordinator" or similar wording, but they may not state that the group or anyone in the group may appoint a Proctor. The local group may appoint a coordinator; if this person is someone who has been appointed as a Proctor by American Mensa, Ltd., the title should be "Proctor Coordinator." If this person has not been so appointed, the title "Testing Coordinator" is appropriate. A Coordinator who is *not* also a Proctor may not administer tests.

Appointment of a Proctor Coordinator or Testing Coordinator as a local group officer is strictly a local group function and follows the procedures for appointment, term expiration, membership lapse, and removal as with any other local group officer. A Proctor may be transferred to inactive status on request of the local group, however only the National Supervisory Psychologist may remove a Proctor.

17. SIGHT Coordinators are appointed by the National SIGHT Coordinator following the recommendation of them by the Local Secretary or RVC. Unless otherwise notified by the local group, the National SIGHT Coordinator will assume that the SIGHT Coordinator continues in office regardless of the expiration of the term of the ExComm, however the position is considered a local group function and follows the procedures for term expiration, membership lapse, and removal as with any other local group officer.

18. Incorporation of either the local group or a subordinate charitable organization is permitted only with the approval of the AMC. Existing incorporated groups are considered as having this approval so long as the incorporation remains valid.

19. Local Gifted Children Coordinators are appointed by the National Gifted Children Program Coordinator following the recommendation of them by the Local Secretary or RVC. Unless otherwise notified by the local group, the National GCPC will assume that the local GCC continues in office regardless of the expiration of the term of the ExComm, however the position is considered a local group function and follows the procedures for term expiration, membership lapse, and removal as with any other local group officer.

THINGS TO REMEMBER

1. ASIE 2000-132 02-Dec-2000
Mensa activities are open exclusively to members and guests of members or of the local group. Even at official functions a member may be evicted for specific unacceptable behavior. In order to promote safety, security, and a full sense of enjoyment of any Mensa activity, whether at an AG, an RG, a local group meeting, an event in a public venue, or a private house party, or a SIG event or a SIGHT visit, the organizers of the event have the responsibility and duty to attempt to control an offending party. This control can take the nature of asking the offending party to leave, and failing that, to request appropriate assistance in removing the offending party from the event. Whenever a member or the guest of a member is asked to leave or is removed from an event, a written report of the reason(s) and the action(s) taken may be sent to the RVC in whose jurisdiction the event took place. In the case of SIGHT, the National SIGHT Coordinator shall be notified.
3. ASIE 0000-005 11-Apr-1966

5. ASIE 1999-013 27-Mar-1999

6. ASIE 1999-085 18-Sep-1999

8. ASIE 2000-144 02-Dec-2000
Effective December 2, 2000, additional letters may not be added to the word "Mensa" and the word "Mensa" shall not be used to create a compound word, except if specifically authorized by the Name and Logo Committee.
9. ASIE 1986-068 07-Sep-1986
It is the sense of the American Mensa Committee that bigotry and prejudice are antithetical to the nature of American Mensa, Ltd.

2. Special business meetings may be called at any time by the Local Secretary or by the Executive Committee, and shall be called upon receipt of a petition signed by 10% of the membership of the Local Group, using the most recent membership roster provided by AML as a measure of membership count. The date, time, place and purpose of the special meeting shall be announced or reported in the Local Group newsletter (or by direct mail). No other business than that indicated in the notice calling the meeting may be acted on.
5. All business meetings of _____ Mensa, and the Executive Committee, shall be held within the geographical limits of the group as assigned by the AMC.

ARTICLE V. ELECTIONS

1. No member of the Nominating Committee or Election Committee may be a voting member of the Executive Committee or a candidate in the upcoming election. The Nominating and Election Committees may comprise the same members.
2. No later than September 15th of each year, the Executive Committee shall appoint a Nominating Committee consisting of three members which shall, no later than the deadline for the November issue of the Local Group newsletter, nominate one or more candidates for each opening on the Executive Committee. The membership of the Local Group shall be notified of these nominations in the November issue of the Local Group newsletter or by mail posted no later than November 1st.
3. No later than November 1st the Executive Committee shall name an Election Committee of three members who shall be responsible for conducting the election, receiving and counting the ballots, and certifying the results. The Election Committee shall determine, and cause to be published, those election rules and regulations not covered by these bylaws.

4. No later than November 15th additional nominations may be made by petition signed by ten (10) members of the Local Group and delivered to the Chairman of the Nominating Committee.

5. Ballots shall be printed in the December issue of the Local Group newsletter or mailed to all members of the Local Group, but in either case posted no later than December 1st. The mail ballots must be returned to the Chairman of the Election Committee and received no later than December 20th. Ballots received after that date shall not be counted. A plurality of valid votes cast for each office shall constitute election. Votes which are tied shall be determined by the Chairman of the Election Committee by a flip of a coin. The Chairman of the Election Committee will certify the results of the election to the Local Secretary and shall have the election results published in the next possible issue of the Local Group newsletter.

6. Any challenges to the election must be made in writing to the Chairman of the Election Committee and received by January 15. Any such challenges must be ruled on by January 31. Any actions by the Executive Committee while a challenge is pending are not affected by the outcome of any such challenge.

7. The outgoing LocSec shall notify AML and the RVC for the Local Group of the results of the election.

2. Rules of Order for the Executive Committee and for those matters concerning the Local Group which are not specified in these Bylaws may be adopted by the Executive Committee.

- End of Model Bylaws -

ARTICLE VI. AMENDMENTS

1. Amendments to these bylaws may be proposed by the Executive Committee or by a petition signed by twenty (20) members of the Local Group. Such proposals shall be submitted first to the AMC for its approval to ballot. After approval to ballot has been received, they shall be published in the next issue of the Local Group newsletter. A mail ballot shall appear in the issue of the Local Group newsletter that follows publication of the proposal and shall be sent to every member of the Local Group. Balloting deadline shall be no less than 90 days following the first publication of the proposed amendment(s) in the Local Group newsletter. To become effective, an amendment to these bylaws shall require an affirmative vote of the majority of those casting valid ballots, as well as final approval of the American Mensa Committee, and filing of revised bylaws with the Bylaws Committee.

ARTICLE VII. MENSA LOGO & NAME

1. American Mensa, Ltd. (AML) has granted a royalty free, non-exclusive license to _____ for the use of the mark "Mensa" and a logo, consisting of a globe over a stylized "M" within a border, in connection with the non-commercial uses of _____. AML retains full ownership of the mark and logo and all statutory and common law rights in the mark and logo.

ARTICLE VIII. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE & RULES OF ORDER

1. The rules contained in Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, latest edition, shall govern the Local Group in all cases to which they are applicable and not inconsistent with these Bylaws.

NOTES CONCERNING THE MODEL BYLAWS:

NOTE ON ARTICLE III, SECTION 1: If the officers are elected directly by the membership rather than the membership electing an Executive Committee, which then elects the officers from among themselves, delete the last sentence.

NOTE ON ARTICLE III, SECTION 9: The terms ombudsman and mediator are considered interchangeable within the meaning of this paragraph and either title may be used. If desired, the arbitrator may be a different position, and either or both may be directly elected by the membership. The mediator(s) and arbitrator(s) may be the same or distinct persons, and may be the same or distinct from other officers.

The following hints and comments have been generated over the years by groups who have either amended their bylaws or who have found some provisions of their bylaws overly restrictive. The Minimum Standards and the Model Bylaws are just that - groups may expand their bylaws as desired from the basic framework given. Smaller groups may do fine with the Model Bylaws, while larger groups may have defined subgroups and other conditions which require additional articles in their bylaws.

The AMC Bylaws Committee is ready to assist your group in modifying or amending your bylaws, when needed, based on the Minimum Standards as required by American Mensa. Please contact them whenever you have a question or problem concerning bylaws. Quick contacts during the revision process can often make the work easier.

1. REQUIRED WORDING FROM THE MINIMUM STANDARDS:

Articles I and II of the Model Bylaws show wording which is required in the Local Group bylaws. Also, the wording of the Treasurer's Report, Article III.4, and the wording of the Mensa Logo and Name clause, Article VII, must be included as it is given.

2. PERCENTAGE OF MEMBERSHIP:

When percentage of membership is specified for petitions or nominations, the reference should be specified, for example: "the most recent membership roster received from AML".

3. EQUAL RIGHTS PROVISION:

Watch out for the "Equal Rights" provision in the Bylaws of American Mensa, Ltd. It says: "Every member shall have the same rights and privileges accorded every other member, without qualifications or limitations." This has been ruled by AML attorneys to be a generality; for example, there may be a requirement that Area Coordinators reside in the designated area of the Local Group.

4. LEGAL INTERPRETATIONS:

Some provisions in your desired or proposed bylaws may become difficult to interpret and might fall into the area of legal interpretation. If you run into such problems, find an attorney in your Local Group, or contact the Chairman of the AMC Bylaws Committee who will then seek legal counsel. However, the AMC will not assist those groups which have chosen to incorporate with compliance with state corporation law.

5. LOCAL GROUP NEWSLETTER NAME:

It is better not to name the actual name of the Local Group newsletter in the bylaws because if done, a desired name change will require several months before the change can become effective through the bylaws-amendment process. If not stated in the bylaws, such a change can be made simply and quickly and does not require AMC approval (other than for name-conflict possibilities).

6. ELECTED EXCOMM VS DIRECTLY ELECTED OFFICERS:

There are advantages and disadvantages to both systems. When the officers are elected by the Executive Committee from among themselves it reduces the tensions of the election process within the Local Group, since most of the major candidates will all be elected to the ExComm, which then elects its officers. On the other hand, having the officers elected directly by the membership promotes responsibility to the membership. Often a new group may feel that having the elected Executive Committee chose the officers from among themselves will allow the most active participants to all be on the governing board, and the group then has the advantage of having the abilities of more people on the board.

As noted in the preface to the Model Bylaws, if your group wishes to have direct election of the officers by the entire membership, then delete the last sentence of Article III (1).

7. REMOVAL OF ELECTED OFFICERS:

Only the entire Executive Committee or the electorate should have the power to remove an elected officer for cause. Permitting a simple majority of the Executive Committee to remove an elected officer by use of such concepts as misfeasance, malfeasance and non-feasance is unwieldy and dangerous. Such accusations should be subject to the electorate's judgment via recall balloting. Removal for non-attendance at business meetings is an exception to this rule.

8. MEETING DATES:

It is unwise to be specific on time and day for monthly meetings. More flexibility is gained by specifying a minimum number of regular meetings per year or quarter, and then letting the Executive Committee decide on the time and location. Local groups must have at least one meeting each quarter.

9. ELECTIONS

Local group elections may be shifted from the dates given in the Model Bylaws so that they correspond to the national elections, or avoid RG dates, etc. The general timing of the Model Bylaws should be retained so that sufficient time is given for the election process. Groups may also elect to have elections every two years instead of every year. Some groups have two-year terms with staggered elections (i.e. one-half of the officers are elected every year). Groups with two year, staggered elections have been very satisfied with the ease and continuity of officer turnover.

10. UNCONTESTED ELECTIONS

Some groups find they sometimes have only one candidate per office for local elections. When all nomination requirements have been followed and this is true, you can declare the candidates elected without publishing a ballot or counting votes. If you chose this option, you preclude write-in candidates.

If you wish to opt for automatic election in uncontested elections, add this to ARTICLE V. (ELECTIONS) Section 4:

In the event there is a candidate for each elected office and only one candidate is identified for each office as of the closing of petitions, those candidates shall be declared elected without balloting.

11. QUICK BYLAWS/AMENDMENTS APPROVAL:
The easiest and fastest way to have your bylaws approved is to simply use the "Model Bylaws" provided by the National office, fill in your group's name, and forward the bylaws to the National office for distribution to the Bylaws Committee. The Committee will contact you on receipt of your bylaws, and will process your proposed bylaws within 60 days, providing you with approval or suggested changes ... As easy as that!

We recommend including your RVC in the amendment process as early as possible, as he/she becomes a member of the Bylaws Committee for review of your bylaws.

12. APPROVAL OF AMENDMENTS BY THE AMC BEFORE LOCAL GROUP BALLOTING:
A Minimum Standard added in 1984 requires that proposed amendments to Local Group bylaws be submitted to, and approved by, the AMC before balloting by the Local Group. This was established because a number of groups had "approved" bylaws amendments locally without meeting the provisions of the Minimum Standards, and those amendments may thus be invalid. The ONLY way to amend bylaws requires AMC Bylaw Committee approval. In other words, there is no such thing as "automatic" or "local only" approval for bylaw changes.

Please note that the AMC requires that any bylaws being amended must be brought up to date with the current Minimum Standards before approval can be given; any proposed amendments cause the AMC Bylaws Committee to review the entire bylaws package. The Minimum Standards are resolutions adopted by the AMC and the Bylaws Committee is not empowered to approve any waivers to them.

Amendments/bylaws having no omissions or violations of the Minimum Standards and no other difficulties should be approved by the AMC within 60 days of their receipt.

6. To obtain AMC approval, send proposed bylaws or amendments (along with the current bylaws) to either the Chairman of the AMC Bylaws Committee, or to the National office, where they will be distributed to the members of the AMC Bylaws Committee. You will hear from the committee chairman upon his/her receipt of the bylaws, and should receive either approval to submit the bylaws to the membership or suggestions for revisions within 60 days. Note that the AMC Bylaws Committee is authorized to approve your bylaws on behalf of the AMC.

Once the Bylaws Committee has approved your bylaws or amendments, you should then submit them to your local membership for ratification. There is no such thing as "automatic" or "local only" approval for bylaw changes. The bylaws or amendments only become effective after approval to ballot the AMC (the Bylaws Committee), approval by your own membership, AND final approval by the Bylaws Committee after filing a copy of the new bylaws with AML. The approval to ballot will expire 1 year from the date of issue.

13. AMENDMENTS 90-DAY WAITING PERIOD:
Amending bylaws is intended to be a thoughtful, careful process. The 90-day waiting period was devised so that the newsletter can publish pro and con statements (or explanations) in issues that follow publication of the proposed amendments. The ballot can then be printed in any of the issues following publication of the proposal. Amendments only become effective following AMC ratification AND Local Group ratification AND filing the revised bylaws with AMC.

14. AREA SUB-GROUPS
Whenever you have a concentration of members more than one hour drive from the main group, area groups increase activity and retention. Area Coordinators may be appointed and may or may not be given a vote on the Executive Committee. Voting appointed Area Coordinators may be added to ARTICLE III. (OFFICERS & DUTIES) Section 1, provided they do not exceed the requirement that only one-half of the voting officers may be appointed.

It is possible to have both elected, voting Sub-group representatives and/or appointed Area Coordinators. If you wish to provide for the formation of area groups with an elected representative, the following should be added to the model bylaws:

Changes in ARTICLE III. (OFFICERS & DUTIES) Section 1: Increase the number of elected officers and add the sub-group representative(s).

Add to ARTICLE III. (OFFICERS & DUTIES) Section 10: Sub-group representatives shall plan and implement sub-group activities and shall assist the Local Secretary in the administration of the sub-group.

Add to ARTICLE V. (ELECTIONS) Section 2: The sub-group representatives shall reside in the represented area and be voted on by only their constituency as defined by their postal ZIP code areas. Sub-group members may not vote for general representatives.

Add to ARTICLE V. (ELECTIONS) Section 4: A person petitioning to run for a sub-group office may use only signatures of persons eligible to vote for that position.

Add these Sections to ARTICLE V. (ELECTIONS):
8. Members residing in any area may petition for sub-group status, with an elected representative. Such petitions must designate the area of the proposed sub-group by listing the postal ZIP Codes included in that area. Such ZIP Codes must be contiguous. The petition must bear the signatures of twenty (20) percent of the members residing in that area. Changes in the area covered by a sub-group will be considered formation of a new sub-group.

9. Upon presentation of such a petition to the Local Secretary, the LocSec will appoint a special Election Committee. At least one member of that committee shall be from the proposed sub-group. Such petition, together with the ballot, shall appear in the next newsletter.

Balloting rules of a regular election shall apply. Voting about creation of a sub-group with representation shall be by the entire membership. The Committee shall supervise the voting, receive and count ballots and certify the results, in writing, to the Local Secretary with a copy to the Newsletter Editor for publication.

(Note: If your bylaws did not previously provide for elected sub-group representatives, the bylaw change procedures would have to be followed.)

10. If the formation of the sub-group is approved, the Local Secretary shall appoint a temporary representative to serve until an election can take place. If the regular elections are more than three months away, a special election shall be held within two months.

We hope these suggestions have been of some help with your bylaws.

Please contact the Chairman of the AMC Bylaws Committee with suggestions or other helpful comments. Thanks!

APPENDIX 15: InterLoc Guidelines:

(see 2000-039 and 2004-011)

Adopted March 2, 2000

InterLoc is an official publication of American Mensa, Limited. To aid present and future Editors, it seems appropriate to state InterLoc's purpose and functions, and to establish guidelines for editorial scope and direction.

PURPOSE: InterLoc is an *information* publication. It was founded as a vehicle to disseminate information among Mensa officers and newsletter editors, particularly such administrative, operating, political, or record data too detailed, or of insufficient interest to the general membership, to warrant publication in the Mensa Bulletin. InterLoc is *not* a local newsletter. It is not concerned with literary merit, entertainment, philosophy, or intellectual stimulation, except as these apply to information helpful to national and local Mensa officers and editors.

FUNCTIONS: The functions of InterLoc are as follows:

- To serve as a channel of communication among the National Office, the AMC, the local officers, and other interested members.
- To be a vehicle for significant, thought-provoking ideas, suggestions, questions, concerns, or discussions from Mensa members relative to Mensa administration or operation, and directed to national or local Mensa officers and/or newsletter editors.
- To assist Mensans interested in performing leadership duties within Mensa, now or in the future.

These functions are not listed as an order of preference, and the performance of one function does not diminish the importance of others. Except for official communications from the AMC, the degree of relevance of material submitted for publication is determined by the judgment of the InterLoc Editor, subject to question by AMC.

EDITORIAL GUIDELINES: The following are suggested as policy guidelines for the Editor of InterLoc, subject to approval by AMC, and to such revisions, clarifications, and additions as may be considered desirable.

The position of Editor of InterLoc requires enthusiasm combined with self-discipline, dispassionate judgment, and a good sense of perspective. He or she is, at the same time, the communication voice of AMC; a leading member of the body of Mensa editors; and a concerned Mensa member. He/she should seek and foster the communication of as much information as possible that will be helpful or constructive for Mensa officers and editors, and should, ideally, avoid harmful and destructive usage. He/she must appraise material submitted as to potential value, merit, and significance to determine whether or not to publish it. He/she must exercise more than normal restraint, recognizing that InterLoc editorial comments will often be read as at least quasi-official statements of AMC position.

The Editor of InterLoc is required to publish official communications of the AMC to Mensa officers and editors.

These will normally be requested by the AMC as a body, or by the Chairman or the Communications Officer. Requests for publication of material by individual AMC officers, acting in the proper performance of their duties, will normally be honored. If the Editor has questions as to either the propriety of publication, or the length or suitability of material, the Communications Officer, or the Chairman, or the AMC in body should be queried prior to publication. Unless specifically directed to the contrary, the Editor shall have the right to publish editorial opinion, comment, or explanation, if desired, about any AMC communications.

Since InterLoc plays a role in the training of Mensa leaders, local and National Officers receive InterLoc automatically and are the primary audience. Potential local and National Officers as well as any member who wants to help improve the function and benefit of AML is encouraged to subscribe; this group is an important additional audience for InterLoc.

To serve communications among officers and editors of Mensa, it is especially desirable to encourage significant communication from local to national levels, and among local officers and local newsletter editors. Worthwhile communication, pertinent to the functioning of Mensa or of any of these offices, that will be of value to a reasonable number of officers, or editors, or both, should be published. This requires appraisal by the Editor of InterLoc. A communication intended for only a few; an individual complaint about an individual instance, unless it has larger implications; or a suggestion for localized improvements, should normally be forwarded to the person or persons involved for action, rather than published. Communications, even if referring to single instances, that have a constructive information value to Local Groups or editors are publication material.

The Editor of InterLoc should neither foment nor fear controversy. He/she is the dispassionate reporter and analyst of such controversy as may exist insofar as it affects, or may affect, Mensa operations. Editorial judgment is demanded. Space in InterLoc should not be made available to the individual fanatic, nor for soothing personal ego bruises, nor for unsubstantiated and apparently baseless charges or vendettas. Nor should InterLoc publish lengthy, repetitive, and exhausting screeds. But InterLoc should be a forum for intelligent and reasoned disagreement, desire for change, serious question, and the presentation of thoughtful views that may be unpopular or controversial. Because of the time lag involved in monthly publication, it should be a matter of policy that any communication critical of a present practice, or officer, or condition which is judged worthy of publication, be published in the same issue an explanation, defense, or answer by an appropriate individual, so that the readers may have a relatively complete communication element. The Editor, working with the Communications Officer, can set suitable deadlines for receipt of such reply materials.

The Editor of InterLoc is not required to publish "in toto" any material except official AMC communications. The InterLoc Editor will often need to edit by digesting, excerpting, cutting, or rephrasing submitted material to accommodate effective communication within the constraints of space. Such editing is the prerogative of the Editor.

Each issue of InterLoc is reviewed before publication by the Communications Officer. Other relevant parties may be requested by the Communications Officer or the Editor to review some or all of an issue to ensure accurate representation of data or policies.

These guidelines may be altered or expanded by suggestions from any of the interested parties, subject to acceptance and approval by the AMC.

APPENDIX 16: Research Review Guidelines:

(see 2002-156, 2002-173, and 2004-101)

Amended September 18, 2004

REQUIREMENTS FOR ACCESS TO MENSA MEMBERS [MENSA MEMBER DATABASE] FOR RESEARCH PURPOSES

For the protection of our members, all requests to use the Mensa membership database for research or to use Mensa members as research subjects must be screened at the national level by the Research Review Committee, a joint committee of American Mensa, Ltd., and the Mensa Education and Research Foundation (MERF).

These guidelines apply to all research utilizing the Mensa database or using Mensa members as research subjects except for research sponsored by recognized AML groups (including SIGs) or AMC appointees for internal Mensa use by the group or appointee.

In order to evaluate requests to recruit research subjects, or to access the Mensa Membership Database, the Committee needs the following information:

1. A letter from a department chair or director, stating that the project is being conducted under the auspices of a University or Research Foundation or appropriate facility;
2. A letter of approval from a Human Subjects Review Board [Institutional Review Board];
3. A statement, signed by the principal investigator, guaranteeing confidentiality of the research subjects;
4. A summary of the project: background, hypothesis, study design, control groups, test instruments, including questionnaires that will be used, etc.
5. A copy of the consent form that will be signed by each volunteer participant;
6. A statement of the sources for funding of the project. This information will be held confidential. However, in view of the time to be devoted by the subjects, the Research Review Committee, and others, it is requested as reasonable assurance that the project can be completed.
7. The Curriculum Vita of the Principal Investigator. If the Principal Investigator is a student, in addition to the Vita, please send the name, faculty title, and mailing address of the Principal Advisor.

Please send the requested information to the Director of Science and Education. You will be notified of the decision of the Committee, or if additional information is needed.

APPENDIX 18: Dispute Resolution

Guidelines:

(see 2002-140)

Amended July 6, 2002

1. The first question to ask is: Is it a Mensa problem, or is it merely a dispute between two individuals who happen to be Mensans?

Mensa's procedures are neither designed nor intended to deal with domestic disputes, employment problems, damage to property, or other civil or criminal matters. Those matters belong in the courts or some other forum.

2. An aggrieved member should be encouraged to seek resolution of the problem directly with the member or members perceived to be causing the problem. The rationale here is that the deal you cut for yourself may be more palatable than the one handed you by someone else. If the dispute is, at heart, primarily a personality clash, the members involved may be encouraged to exhibit a tolerance of diversity, lest the dispute become a Mensa problem.
3. If the member cannot or will not resolve a dispute directly, the next person to approach for help is the local ombudsman if there is one available. The ombudsman's investigation may reveal that there is no real basis for a complaint, may suggest a possible solution, or may lead to mediation.
4. If there is no local ombudsman, or the local ombudsman is unable to resolve the dispute, the matter should be brought to the attention of the local group's board or executive committee.
5. If a member's problem relates to the operation of the local group, its newsletter, etc., and there has been no resolution of the problem by a local ombudsman, the member may wish to seek the informal assistance of the group's Regional Vice-Chairman. However, policy disputes usually are better resolved via the ballot box at the next local group election.
6. Beyond item 5, it is necessary to bring the matter to the attention of those authorities whose roles are set forth in the Bylaws of American Mensa and in the resolutions of the American Mensa Committee: The national ombudsman, the national hearings committee, and regional hearings committees. Each has different functions. Depending on the nature of the dispute, and depending on what has resulted from prior attempts at resolution, it may be appropriate for an aggrieved member to take his/her case to any of the three.
7. The duties and powers of the national ombudsman are set forth in Bylaw VIII. In general, the ombudsman's powers are to investigate, to mediate, and to express his opinion. The ombudsman's power to submit his opinion on a matter "for publication" is, perhaps, his most powerful inducement to cooperation.

However, unless all of the parties to a dispute have agreed to binding arbitration, the ombudsman has no authority to impose sanctions. That power is allocated to the hearings committees and the AMC.

8. The duties and powers of the national hearings committee are set forth in Bylaw IX(5) and in the "Policies and Rules Governing the Conduct of Hearings" adopted by the AMC.

The national hearings committee does not exist to resolve personal disputes between members, nor is it a peacemaker, mediator, arbitrator, or counselor. Those functions are assigned to others such as the ombudsman and the RVC.

The function of the national hearings committee is, therefore, passive in contrast to the ombudsman and it can only deal with complaints that are properly brought before it. Proper complaints are only those which allege acts inimical to Mensa. That means acts which harm the organization itself and not acts which may bring harm to members.

A national hearing is initiated by filing a properly substantiated complaint with the national hearings committee liaison, whose address appears in each issue of the Mensa Bulletin.

9. The duties and powers of the regional hearings committee are set forth in Bylaw IX(6) and in the "Rules and Procedures Governing the Conduct of Regional Hearings" adopted by the AMC.

As with the national hearings committee, the regional hearings committee does not exist to resolve personal disputes between members, nor is it a peacemaker, mediator, arbitrator, or counselor.

The function of the regional hearings committee is to hear and decide charges of recurring conduct that is so demonstrably harmful to a local group or to individual members that it is inimical to Mensa. The national ombudsman, or his designee, will attend the hearing so as to be able to report to the AMC on its fairness.

A regional hearing is initiated by filing a properly substantiated complaint with the local group's RVC.

10. Sanctions recommended by a national or regional hearings committee that involve either suspension or expulsion from membership must be approved by the AMC and may be reduced by the AMC. However, the AMC cannot increase any recommended sanctions, nor can it impose sanctions where a hearings committee has recommended none.

APPENDIX 19: Local Gifted Children

Coordinator Selection Procedure:

(see 2002-174)

Adopted December 14, 2002

1. Each Local Group is encouraged to select a Local Gifted Children Coordinator (LGCC) for their group. The LocSec or outgoing LGCC should discuss the position with the volunteer LGCC and give him or her any current printed information on the program - including a Local Gifted Children Coordinator Registration Form (of which use is encouraged), which is sent to the NATIONAL GIFTED CHILDREN COORDINATOR (NGCC).
2. Each Local Group's selection of a LGCC shall be by the procedure outlined in the Local Group's bylaws for selection of appointed officers. For example, some groups may do this by LocSec appointment, whereas other groups may do this by LocSec appointment with ExComm approval or by other methods.
3. The LocSec, on behalf of the Local Group, submits the information on the LGCC candidate to the NGCC, either directly or through the National Office (which shall forward to the NGCC any information received regarding a nominee for LGCC). The submission should include name, membership number, address(es), email(s), confirmation that the Mensa member is in good standing, and contact information. The Local Gifted Children Coordinator Registration Form, if available, may be submitted with the initial submission.
4. The NGCC may contact the nominee directly and ask for the LGCC nominee information. If a LGCC Registration Form has not been received, the NGCC shall send a Registration Form to the LGCC nominee for completion.
5. Selection of LGCCs is a joint local and national appointment. Upon confirmation of the Local Group's nominee, the NGCC shall promptly inform the successful nominee, LocSec, and the National Office of the confirmation. The National Office shall publish the new LGCC's name in the next available directory issue of the Mensa Bulletin. The LocSec or Editor should announce the new LGCC's appointment in the local newsletter; the newsletter should continue to list the LGCC information in the officer listings. If the nominee is not confirmed, the NGCC shall notify the LocSec, and the NGCC and the LocSec will work together to find a LGCC for the group.
6. The NGCC shall prepare and make available information for Local Groups to consider when choosing a LGCC. Such information should include factors that the NGCC will consider when deciding whether to confirm a LGCC nominee and shall include factors which make it likely that the LGCC's participation in AML's Gifted Children Program will be safe, productive, reliable and good for AML's image. However, the NGCC is not limited to considering listed factors and should use his/her judgment in evaluating all information relevant to each nomination for LGCC.

APPENDIX 22: GUIDELINES FOR LOCAL GROUP DISSOLUTION

GUIDELINES FOR LOCAL GROUP DISSOLUTION

The following guidelines are intended to be an aid to the group which is in process of dissolving. The RVC is given broad discretion in the interpretation and implementation of these guidelines.

1. THE DISSOLUTION QUESTION.

The dissolution process may be initiated by a petition signed by 10% of the members of the group in question, and presented to the RVC. The petition may but need not specify another group or groups (specifying which zip codes which will be transferred to which group) into which the group will be folded. The RVC or his representative will ballot the members of the group as to whether or not to dissolve, with a simple majority of valid votes cast deciding. There should be ample time for the membership to consider this action, and comments pro and con may be presented with the ballot. The same proposal should not be balloted more often than every three years.

In the event a group appears moribund, the RVC will first contact current (or last known) elected officers in an initial attempt to revive the group. If that fails, the RVC will contact each member of the group by mail informing them of the possibility of dissolving the local group and their reassignment to another local group. The members will be given a reasonable amount of time (at least 60 days) to respond, either to volunteer to reorganize the local group or to specify the local group to which they wish to be reassigned. If this still does not result in reactivating the group, the RVC may dissolve the group on his/her own authority without a ballot.

2. WHERE THE GROUP GOES

If the group grew out of a neighboring group, or there is a logical affinity for a neighboring group, or the petition specified a group, then the members are reassigned to that group. If there are two or more groups specified in the petition or a logical division exists, the members are reassigned accordingly.

The members should receive notice, either in a special mailing or in their new newsletter, that they are going to be transferred. They will be told that they may also by preference transfer their membership to any other local group (including Isolated M) on request to the National Office with instructions on how to do that.

3. GROUP ASSETS

The existing assets of the group will be transferred to the new group. Records will be kept so that if the group is able to reform within two years, the same assets may be transferred back. If there are two or more groups receiving the members, the assets will be transferred in proportion.

If this violates a local group's bylaws, the AMC has the authority to simply dissolve a local group, and in such cases the AMC will take special pains to distribute group assets fairly.

In the case of a separately incorporated local group, the RVC, acting in consultation with the AMC and AML corporate counsel will develop a special plan for proper distribution of the local group's assets.
